The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

Monday morning—back on the job, after five weeks on the ocean. We were as glad to sight land as Columbus at San Salvador nearly 500 years ago.

There was no mail deliveries on the briny deep and we do not dare to express any opinion about local affairs because we know nothing about them. The only thing that we are dead certain about is that our prediction given six months ago that municipal special assessment machinery moves so slowly in Arlington Heights that Campbell st. widening project will not be completed this year.

We have received so much kidding about being an "admiral" that we have decided to put on our "navy uniform" Saturday. It may be only khaki, but it was the "uniform of the day" September 16 to October 23.

We learned a lot about world affairs, talking with officers of the British, French and U. S. Navy, not to mention two Admirals. Some of the information we gathered was off the record; some of it might be labeled communistic, but take it from us too many Americans are like ostriches with their heads in the ground.

We understand our guest editor, T. C. Hart, tried to sell the idea that the editor was receiving a "joy" ride at the expense of the taxpayers. He is all wrong. The little cargo that our bodies represented did not cause any one of those two ships on which we traveled to burn an extra gallon of oil. The room stewards may have done a bit of extra duty, but they did not draw any overtime pay.

It is true that Uncle Sam did not make any profit on the meals that we paid for. The cost of the two steak dinners served to us in the cabins of the two admirals of whom we were guests, came out of their allowances.

We do not know the cost of distilling water, but we doubt if we used over 10 gallons of such water a day, or a total of 3,500 gallons for the entire trip. We saw a lot more than that amount wasted every day as the seaman washed down the decks.

The only thing left to talk about is the starch that the ship's laundry used on our clothes. Those "uniforms". (we bought and paid for) were so stiff when they came back that they could stand alone.

On the other side of the ledger is the loss of three planes totaling two million dollars, 5,000 gallons of aviation fuel that had to be pumped overboard before our cruiser could enter the Boston navy yard. The taxpayers did pay for those.

We did forget one item—7,000 pounds of coffee that the carrier had on board when it left Quonset. The regular daily consumption of an officer is between 12 and 15 cups a day, probably more. Coffee pots were on call all over ship, but we confined our coffee drinking to meal time and an occasional visit to the captain's bridge, where as his guest, we had a "quick one or two."

The charge that the U. S. armed forces spend money high, wide and handsome is another fallacy. It is true that when the Bennington left Quonset there was a million and a half dollars in its safe. No greater amount was needed because three days after the men and officers receive their semi-monthly checks, 80% of the payroll is back in the coffers of the ship through purchases at the ship's stores and the postoffice.

There are as many auditors on that ship as there are departments. The most worried man we came across was the supply officer who had figured so close the rations of the 3,200 men on the ship that at the end of the month his balance in his budget was only $10. He hoped that he would never again run so close.

We were not traveling at "Queen Mary" speed because 32 knots would have used the entire ship's fuel supply within a week, which explains why a speed of 16 knots was the average run.

The sixth Mediterranean fleet is the only thing that prevents Russia from annexing all of southern Europe. That fleet is not there merely as a gesture of friendliness to the countries bordering that sea. Without it, existing democratic morale in southern Europe would evaporate.

It is true that a great many people in Italy, France and other points do not like the United States. The "go home Americanos" signs are only an expression of a citizenry who have been told that the food and goods we are giving to them is charity. They do not seem to realize that the U. S. which is attempting to buy their support with U. S. dollars, is getting its money's worth if the countries only keep away from Communistic beliefs.

The Trieste decision of the United States gave two sailor boys an evening of free pool in Palermo. As they asked for their bill they are told, "No charge, thank you for giving us Trieste."

All of the above leads up to just one thing—United States cannot afford to "go it alone." We agree with the minister who in his sermon last Sunday made the comment that a certain Chicago newspaper might question the Kingdom of God because it threatens the sovereignty of the United States.

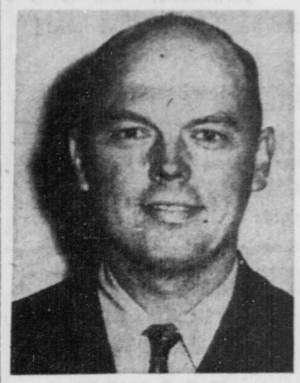

"Ghosts' night to howl," could well be the title of this drawing which won first prize in the class A division of the Hallowe'en window painting contest in Arlington Heights. The contest was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Young artists responsible for the picture were Jim Solon and Jim Peary, who are in the eighth grade at the Junior high school. —Staff Photo.

OFFERS NEW SITE FOR $5,000,000 SHOP CENTER

Site Will Remove Industrial Threat To Residential Area

A new site for the Arlington Heights shopping center has been selected, a spokesman for John Lindstrom, Inc., Arlington Heights builder, announced. A 15-acre tract of land, a plot north of Foundry rd. and east of Beverley lane, currently zoned industrial, will be used for the $5,000,000 project.

JOHN LINDSTROM

The original site selected, on State rd., north and west of the Scarsdale subdivision, met opposition by the zoning board, and rather than delay construction further through court action, the builders chose the Foundry rd. location for the project. A spokesman for John Lindstrom, Inc., stated the reason for the change in location was due to the lengthiness of the litigation for the change in zoning of the original site selected.

THE PRESENT 15-acre site will provide enough space to park 1,200 cars and will allow for 175,000 square feet of store area. Plans for the building are now being prepared for the new location and a firm spokesman stated lease negotiations with prospective tenants will start immediately.

Builders express the hope the center will multiply business activity in Arlington Heights.

Latest techniques will be employed in planning each part of the huge venture, a spokesman related, and pointed out it is the aim of those behind the project to make the center as beautiful and functional as possible, capitalizing on the experience of a number of other highly successful, similar projects—to fully exploit the advantageous location selected.

Plans call for fully air conditioned buildings, wide, landscaped lawns, paved roads, and extensive use of glass in construction.

SUBSTANTIAL interest by prospective lessees of shops and buildings in the new shopping area has already been induced, according to the developers. Emphasis is being placed upon bringing in new enterprises to the community so as to increase the variety of product lines available to residents, but the builders stress they do not plan the new center to be a re-arrangement of existing business facilities.

The explanation as to why the project is attracting such wide interest, according to the builders, is apparently due to the fact no similar facility is available to shoppers in the entire northwest suburban area.

Jazz Concert To Feature Top Artists

The new gymnasium of the Arlington Heights high school November 12, at 8:30 p.m., will be the scene for one of the greatest and most unusual musical moments ever to be witnessed in this area. Seldom is it possible to bring together in one evening such brilliant exponents of American jazz as Billy Eckstine, Woody Herman and Sidney Bechet but the Wheeling Township Junior Chamber of Commerce has done it.

The opportunity to see and listen to any one of these three artists, each supreme in his own field, is rare. Thus, realizing that the combination of this trio in a two and one-half hour concert would be a thrilling and unprecedented occasion for lovers of modern music, the Jaycees obtained the facilities of the huge new Arlington gym in the hope that no one would be turned away for lack of adequate seats.

TICKETS ARE still available, but the Jaycees say they can no longer guarantee that those who wait much longer will be fortunate enough to purchase seats. High school students may purchase their tickets at Arlington Heights, Palatine, Barrington, or Maine high schools. The $2.50 general admission ticket is being offered high school students at a special $2 price if purchased at the school. Reserved section seats are available for $3.50 and main floor unreserved tickets are offered at $3.

All tickets may be purchased at any of the following locations: Arlington Heights — Millay's, Lohr's Pharmacy, Arlington Heights Pharmacy; Palatine — Palatine Drugs, Moo Bar; Mount Prospect — Van Driel's, Mell & Paul's Drive-In; Prospect Heights Pharmacy, The Lunch Bar; Des Plaines — Maria Schaefer; Wheeling — Wheeling Bowling Lanes.

A special award will be made to the oldest person in the audience and to the lucky "Real Gone" guy or gal.

Highway Dept. Sends Completed Plans for Tri-State Expressway

Arlington Heights Plan Commission recently received a complete set of location plans of that part of the Tri-State Expressway between Oakton and the county line.

Charles F. Seals, Jr. pointed out to the commission that part of the expressway is located immediately adjacent to the Stonegate subdivision. He explained residents of this subidvision find such proximity objectionable, due to motor truck noises and traffic hazards on the approaches to the expressway and general congestion. He requested the commission to study a relocation of the expressway further east, insofar as it affects the Stonegate subdivision.

In order to make this further study, the commission has requested a map of Arlington Heights, showing the latest subdivisions on either side of the proposed expressway with the proposed route of the Tri-State superimposed thereon.

The county highway department stated Tuesday it does not anticipate the extension will be constructed in the next few years, but it is its policy to refer to municipal authorities route plans as soon as its engineers have completed them.

The plan commission does not favor the vacating of Grove street between S. Beverly Lane and S. Dryden place due to the fact that a main line sewer underlies the entire street. Adjoining property owners will be encouraged to establish lawns and to otherwise keep up the appearance of the "street" lots.

American Education Week To Be Observed

American Education Week, to be observed in Arlington Heights public grade and high schools November 8-14, has "Good Schools are Your Responsibility," for this year's theme.

Residents are urged to visit the schools during the week to see them in actual operation, as well as to view the many facilities available to students in Arlington Heights.

Consumers Co. Start Operation of Transit Mix Plant at Arlington

The Consumers Co. started the operation of a transit mix plant this week on the property of Arlington Elevator and Coal Co., Arlington Heights. The mixing of the sand, gravel and cement is done while the truck is in transit, which method eliminates the noise and dust that usually surround the normal cement mixing plant.

Arlington Elevator & Coal Co. investigated thoroughly the method proposed to be used by Consumers Co. before it executed a lease for the use of part of their property. Three silos were demolished and many thousands of dollars were expended for the installation of the machinery for new operations. Additional silos will be torn down in the near future as coal will not be handled.

William Schlagel is in charge of sales and Ray Leppig will be in charge of operations. It is expected that from six to eight trucks will be placed in service to handle the product of the Arlington plant. The company has a similar plant at Skokie.

Geo. Schneberger, general manager of Arlington Elevator and Coal Co., states that his firm will continue to supply customers with the building materials which it has previously sold.

Grade School Concert Band to Play for Public November 13

The concert band of the Arlington Heights public schools will present their first concert of the year November 13 at 8 p. m. in the South school auditorium.

This band has 70 members composed of pupils in the all school band. Band members are from the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

In addition to a fine selection of musical numbers by the entire band, there will be eight soloists on the program. The young soloists are:

Charles Ninneman, violin; John Double, tenor saxophone; Barbara Fromm, clarinet; Ronald Conrad, cornet; Jeffrey Heintz, clarinet; Janet Lunsmann, clarinet; Bruce Law, B flat alto horn; George Fromm, trumpet.

Admission will be by complimentary ticket. Each student may receive tickets for his parents from his homeroom teacher. Others interested in attending the concert may receive tickets by coming to the Junior high school office, 314 S. Highland ave.

Board Seeks Adequate R R Crossing Protection

Action taken by the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday night authorized the village engineers to prepare a detailed report recommending a plan to improve the method of protection at the railroad crossings.

In a preliminary report, the engineers informed the board automatic gates, with flasher lights and bells, synchronizing the traffic signals on the highway with the gates, and putting in a traffic light on Davis st. and State rd., would be one method of increasing the protection. However, they plan to go into every phase of the problem and submit a recommendation to the board.

IT IS NECESSARY to make this detailed report in order to have something concrete to present to the Illinois Commerce Commission, which must hold a hearing on the matter before any improvements can be made.

Protection afforded by the manually operated crossing gates has been for a long time a source of much discussion by residents of the village. The death of three young men at the State rd. crossing several weeks ago prompted the village to take immediate steps to correct the situation.

EVEN SINCE this accident police records show where residents have reported seeing the gates going down when the train is at the crossing, or having the gates lowered while a car is on the tracks. Twice since the accident, crossing gates, one at Evergreen and one at State rd., have been broken by autos caught on the tracks when the gates went down.

In view of these facts, citizens are urged to stop, look and listen before crossing the tracks until dependable protection facilities are installed.

Sgt. Johnson Elected Fourth Vice President Of Police Association

Sgt. Oscar Johnson of the Arlington Heights police department was recently elected the fourth vice president of the Illinois Police association. He is retiring chairman of the North Shore division of the association.

Sgt. Johnson and Officer Irvin McDougall were delegates at the annual meeting held at the Hotel Sheraton, Chicago, October 21 and 22. More than 400 delegates attended, representing more than 12,000 members of this statewide organization.

Violators Pay $461 In Fines; Kids Praised For Hallowe'en Behavior

Police traffic court in Arlington Heights netted $461 in fines this week, including two fines, one of $100 and the other of $150, for two men arrested for driving while under the influence of liquor.

The other violations included speeding, going through stop signs, overlength trailer, no driver's license, no tail lights, and failure to put out flares and fuses for a stalled truck. An additional $12 was collected for overtime and illegal parking.

CHIEF OF POLICE Carl H. Skoog said this week the police department occasionally has some good things to report, such as the "splendid conduct of teenagers attending the Youth Center Halloween party."

In a letter to L. J. Knoeppel, superintendent of the Arlington high school, Chief Skoog wrote, "I personally visited Ramble Inn in the company of two of my police officers and I am happy to say we can be proud of our Arlington Heights youth and those of our neighboring communities who attend our high school. It was a full house of happy merry makers, who left the party and returned home without unnecessary noise or disturbance, with the exception of a few, who were picked up for shooting firecrackers in the park."

Two dog bite cases were reported this week. One victim was a man who was delivering a parcel, and the other a 2½ year old girl. Both were treated by doctors and owners of the dogs were notified to keep their dogs under observation for the required period of time.

A BOY SHOOTING an air rifle across a public road was reported to the police. Chief Skoog wishes to remind residents of the new ordinance passed by the village which prohibits the shooting of firearms within the village limits. Those caught violating this ordinance will be arrested.

A car, driven by Edith Clarke of Arlington Heights, went out of control Tuesday morning while she was trying to park it in front of the A&P store on Campbell st. One of the plate glass panes was broken and another cracked as a result of the impact. The Clarke auto was damaged on the right front fender, bumper, light and hood.

Mrs. Theresa Bruhnke, 709 N. Vail, received a sprained left hand and a fractured rib when the parked auto she was sitting in was struck head on by another car driven by Donald E. Tabor of O'Hare field.

THE ACCIDENT occurred Monday night in front of 203 S. Evergreen. Mrs. Bruhnke was sitting in her son, Robert Bruhnke's auto, which was parked on the east side of the street, facing north. Tabor was traveling south on Evergreen when the accident occurred. He was booked for driving while under the influence of liquor.

The left front fender, bumper and headlight of both cars were damaged.

Charles Pingel, of 33 S. Evergreen, escaped injuries Monday afternoon when his truck was caught between the gates at the State rd. railroad crossing. Pingel told police he did not hear the bells ringing and was in the center of the track when the gates came down suddenly. The northeast gate was broken as he drove the truck off the track. The truck was not damaged.

Mrs. Robert Peet, 210 Fairview, Elmhurst, reported to the police that the hub caps were stolen off her auto while it was parked at the high school Monday night.

October Building Totals $657,285 In Arlington

October building in Arlington Heights totaled $657,285, with $544,000 of the amount credited to 32 homes. Other permits granted included 14 private garages, $14,195; 2 gas stations, $40,000; 2 stores, $48,700; garden house, $300; and 10 additions to buildings, $10,090.

Truck in which Fred Kraus, 24, of Wheeling, was seriously injured last Saturday when it went out of control and hit a cement culvert on Dundee rd., near Buffalo Grove rd. A cut on his face required 30 stitches, and he also suffered lacerations on his knee. He was taken to St. Francis hospital, Evanston, for treatment. Arlington Fender and Body shop cleared the wreckage. —Staff Photo.

N. W. Group Assured New Development Will Not Endanger Their Homes

Members of the Northwest Community Betterment group filled the village hall Tuesday night to back a petition submitted to the Arlington Heights village board regarding the development of Virginia Terrace, a new subdivision lying north of Oakton and east of Wilke rd., adjacent to the Arlington Park area.

The petition requested the board to hold up any further building permits for the area until it approved the sewer and water in the subdivision. The group feared their homes would suffer from flooded basements due to overloading the sewers. It felt the village had set a precedent by allowing the developer to connect the three model homes already erected to the storm sewer on Oakton.

CARL BOWEN, village engineer, explained this connection would have no bearing, whatsoever, on flooding basements. He said the sewer in Oakton st. was built to serve both sides of the street.

The engineer, who represents Consoer and Townsend, assured the group sewer and water improvements in the area would meet every village requirement.

Raymond Lutgert, developer, later told the board he would put any amount of money required by the village in escrow to assure the completion of the improvements. In the meantime he sought approval of 45 additional building permits, eight along Oakton and the balance along Wilke rd. He said he did not expect permission to connect with the sewer and water before such time as these facilities are available. The engineers said the plans for these improvements would be ready in approximately two months, Lutgert has high hopes of having the improvements in in time for April occupancy of the homes.

The matter was taken under advisement until Monday night, when an adjourned meeting of the board will be held.

EVERY NEW home built in Arlington Heights, whether one or 100, will be required to have a sidewalk in front of the property. An ordinance to this affect was passed in June 1950 and the building commissioner, Fred Hammer, was given authority Tuesday night to see it was adhered to.

The police department was given permission to purchase a drunk-o-meter, not to exceed $250 and to be paid for out of fine money collected by the department. This machine will enable the police to check an individual for drunkeness, and do away with the necessity of getting a physician to examine such cases.

The trustees approved the appointment of Robert F. Bursa as a volunteer fireman.

A PETITION requesting rezoning of lots immediately south of the Arlington Fender and Body Shop on S. Highland, to permit a parking lot was referred to the zoning board of appeals for a public hearing.

Ed LaBant Jr. was granted permission to move the home from 119 W. Campbell to a site on the corner of Walnut and Central.

MAYOR ALBERT W. Goedke cast the deciding vote to permit the paving of one block of Oakton, from Wilke to Race ave., by the developers of Virginia Terrace. Oakton, at present, is a half street constructed of concrete. The other portion is to be done with bituminous I-11, according to plans and specifications required by the village.

Trustees Robert Bishop, William Luehring and Charles Rehfeldt, voted against the proposal. Their main objection was to the half street of pavement and half street of "black top."

L. Toupence, Wheeling Killed in Auto Crash

Louis J. Toupence of Wheeling was killed Tuesday evening when his car collided with another, driven by Franklin Hamm of Fox Lake, at Wolf and Palatine rd. Hamm is in serious condition in St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

Toupence was apparently returning home from his work at the Shakeproof corporation in Des Plaines when the accident occurred. The inquest held Wednesday morning at Oehlers was continued until December 2, pending the recovery of Hamm.

Toupence, born July 24, 1903, in Pittsfield, Mass., was married and the father of four children, the oldest of which is eight. Funeral services will be held Saturday from Oehlers chapel in Des Plaines with Deerfield Masons officiating.

Survivors include his wife, Elma, children, Betty, Richard, Robert and Susan; his mother, Lea Toupence, and a brother, Roger.

Suburban Republican Voters Elect Many Judicial Candidates

Any judicial victories that the Republican candidates obtain for contested judicial seats can be credited to the surprising vote polled by that party in the suburbs.

While the total vote cast in Tuesday's election was only a fraction of that cast at the presidential election a year ago, some of the precincts in the northwest towns rolled up a surprising percentage of their registration.

Voters in this area are not taking kindly to voting machines and voted overwhelmingly against a bond issue which would have placed the machine in all suburban areas. Palatine township vote on the bond issue was 361 to 1075 against. In Schaumburg township there were only 29 votes favoring the machines and 139 against them. A similar proportion existed in the other townships.

Maine township vote totaled 9,109 with approximately four to one in favor of the Republican candidates. Voting machines were used in Maine and Northfield townships and straight votes are not so registered.

Votes in six of the northwest townships follow.

1954 Vehicle Tags Go On Sale November 16

The 1954 vehicle stickers for the village of Arlington Heights will go on sale at the Village Clerk's office, 107 W. Davis st., November 16.

This year's tag was designed to harmonize with the state license plates, which are going to feature Illinois as the Lincoln State. The tags are $3.50 for passenger autos with slightly higher fees being charged for the various types of trucks.

Northwest Heighters Activities

Stork Shower

Mrs. Melvin Laseke recently entertained 28 guests at a shower in her home for Mrs. Charles Rehfeldt. Among the guests was Mrs. Robert Edstrom of Chicago, formerly of Arlington. Refreshments were served and Mrs. Gordon Bergquist of Villa Park assisted her sister, the hostess, Mrs. Laseke, by pouring.

Neighborhood Doings

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Witt enjoyed a week end visit from her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Price, and their four sons, Donald, David, Michael and Gary, who drove here from their home in Memphis, Tenn.

A recent week end trip to Grand Ledge, Mich., was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yelton and their daughters, Susan and Linda. They visited Mrs. Yelton's mother, Mrs. Charles McDowell. During the past week, while on vacation, Mr. Yelton attended a three day convention of Photo Engravers at the Sheraton hotel in Chicago.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGrath played cards with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. van Oosten in their home on S. Pine. The van Oostens are new residents in town having recently moved here from Roanoke, Va.

A week end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vetter was her mother, Mrs. Mabel Montgomery, who drove here from Glidden, Ia. Linda Vetter celebrated her sixth birthday Friday and was happy to have her grandmother here for the occasion.

Girl Scout Project

The 24 Girl Scouts of troop 19 forfeited their "Tricks or Treat" fun Halloween night to collect can goods and staples with which to make baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving. The leaders of the troop are Mrs. Alfred Hall and Mrs. John Huskey and their troop committee chairman is Mrs. Clarence Loechl. Later in the evening the group gathered at the home of Mrs. Hall for cider and doughnuts and the girls were awarded prizes for their costumes. The three winners for the prettiest costumes were Lynn Lemmerhirt, Linda Schultz and Deanna Warejcka. The prize for the most original costume went to Bobbin Kelly and for the most comical, to Carol Huskey. All the girls in troop 19 wish to express their thanks to those who contributed.

Wedding Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schlomann and their children, Susan, Carol and Johnny, recently attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Schlomann's great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Kamps. An open house for 150 friends and relatives was held at the Kamps' home in Skokie.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lemmerhirt surprised her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Chicago with a party to celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary Friday evening. A buffet supper was served to the 56 guests, and since the ruby is the symbol for the fortieth anniversary, all the decorations were in red and white and the seven granddaughters present were quite a picture in their red taffeta dresses when they joined the four grandsons of the family grandparents with a bouquet of 40 red roses. The senior Nelsons' other children who attended the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nelson of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson Jr. of Glen Ellyn and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nelson of Arlington.

Halloween Parties

A costume party was given at the home of Ethel Wilson Currier Friday evening for 45 of her piano students. Special guests were the parents of the youngest group, the 6 year olds. Cider and doughnuts were served, and the youngsters were capable of providing their own entertainment and enjoyed taking their turns playing the piano for one another.

Mr. and Mrs. Iver Blackburg extended their hospitality and the use of their home Thursday and Friday evenings to two young neighbor friends, Mary Jane Shulse and Vandy Brennan, for their Halloween parties. Mary Jane was hostess Thursday evening to 26 girls who enjoyed dancing, games and refreshments, and prizes were given for the four best costumes. Vandy entertained the next night with 27 of her friends from school and they also enjoyed games and refreshments and taking pictures of everyone in costume.

Owners Group To See Three Films

The program for the November 10 meeting of the Arlington Terrace Home Owners Association will feature a showing of three films prepared by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company. All residents of Arlington Terrace are invited to attend this meeting at 8:15 p. m. at the Recreation Park field house, Arlington Heights.

Two of the films, entitled, "Television Networks" and "Stepping Along with Television," tell of the combined workings of the telephone and television to bring shows and events from thousands of miles away into individual homes.

The third film, "Mobile Telephones," tells the story of "telephones on wheels," the mobile service of the telephone company.

Mothers' Club Benefit Dance Is Friday

Dick Everett and his orchestra will furnish music for the Arlington Heights St. James Mothers' club dance Friday at the Mount Prospect Country club. Mr. Everett, a resident of Arlington Heights, is well known as a teacher of piano, for his concerts, and his many orchestral engagements in the Chicago area.

The proceeds from this second annual dance will be used to help defray the expenses of furnishing the new class rooms at St. James Catholic school.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or from members of the dance committee, Mrs. Frank Cowarl, Mrs. Paul Colianni, Mrs. Matthew Cockrell and Mrs. Jack Mutti.

Wins Refrigerator

Mrs. Gene Hughes, 514 E. Fremont, Arlington Heights, was the lucky winner of a Hotpoint refrigerator, complete with freezer chest, given away at the open house of the Hotpoint refrigerator plant in Cicero October 23. Her husband is employed at the plant.

PTA Boot, Skate Exchange This Saturday

Mothers of the Arlington Hts. PTA are busy pricing and marking bargains in ice skates, roller skates, boots, and galoshes for the PTA-sponsored exchange being held this Saturday. The site of the annual sale will be the South school gymnasium, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 12 noon, where the youngsters can try on the desired item for a good fit.

People who send out-grown footwear to the schools Thursday or Friday, are urged to mark them plainly with owner's name and desired price to expedite payment being made after the sale. These returns will be made only between the hours of 12 noon and 2 p. m. Saturday.

Conference Dance Set

Konference Kapers, the annual dance for students of schools in the West Suburban conference will be held November 10 at Melody Mill ballroom, just north of Riverside.

Music will be furnished by Fletcher Butler's band, which recently played for the Maine township high school homecoming.

CIRCLING THE TOWN

BY PHYLLIS KNIGHT

Trade in time for skates and boots of Arlington youngsters will be Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in the South school gym. Ways and Means committee of the PTA is sponsoring an exchange of outgrown roller and ice skates, boots and galoshes at this time.

Skates and boots may be sent to school with the children today, Thursday, and tomorrow, marked with the price desired and the name of the owner. PTA will retain 20% of the price as its share of the proceeds.

Purchasers are welcome to try on anything they might wish to buy to be sure of getting a good fit. Payments to sellers will be made in the gym from 12 noon until 2 p. m. Saturday.

Mrs. Chester Zimmerman is chairman of this PTA project, certainly a painless way for members to contribute to the PTA while turning into profit items that would no doubt be no longer useful to themselves.

'Real Gone'

Jazz personified will appear on the scene in Arlington Heights next week Thursday when the Wheeling Township Jaycees present Woody Herman, Billy Eckstine and Sidney Bechet in a concert in the new gym at the high school. Herman's band, the Third Herd, is also a part of the program.

Tickets, ranging from $3.50 for the reserved front section of the main floor to $2 for high school students in the balcony, are on sale at stores and in high schools in this area. Other ticket rates are $3 for the rest of the main floor and $2.50 for adult tickets for the balcony.

The combination of Eckstine, Bechet and Herman, as any jazz fan will say, is a fabulous one, offering "hot" music of all sorts. These three musicians are three of the most famous and most skilled in their specialties in the country today. Indeed, this jazz concert is a current major topic of local conversation.

Jaycees' projects such as the proposed new hospital will benefit from the concert.

To Banish Doubt

Prospective college freshmen who don't know which college to attend will probably have their doubts banished when they attend annual college night at the high school tonight, Thursday. Councellor Eugene Oliver is in charge of the program, and has announced that representatives of more than 70 colleges and universities will be present.

High school juniors, seniors and their parents are invited to consult these representatives and ask any questions they may want to. Representatives will be on hand from 7:30 until at least 9:30, and will in most cases have catalogues, yearbooks and pictures of the campus.

Expert Clerking

Those who do their Christmas shopping in Arlington Heights will have reason to appreciate the courteous help given them by part-time holiday employees this year. A special course, under the direction of Bruno Waara, is being conducted at the high school for the benefit of those students who want to augment their pocket money by working during the holidays.

The course, meeting for 10 sessions, will cover procedures of retail stores and dealing with the customers.

To Address WSCS Nov. 10

"Sour Grapes That Set Teeth On Edge," a phrase from the Book of Jeremiah, is the title Rev. Emerson S. Colaw, pastor of Edison Park Methodist church, has chosen for his talk at the November 10 luncheon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights.

He will give the role of the Prophets in the life of Israel and present the conditions at the time of Jeremiah. The Book of Jeremiah will be used by the WSCS for Bible study during the coming year.

The Bible study to be taken up in the circles of the society is under the direction of Mrs. Madgel Stockdale, program chairman, with the following serving as Bible leaders: Mrs. Daisy Daniels, Mrs. Elsie Moodie, Mrs. Dorothy Fellingham, Mrs. Frances Dill and Mrs. Lois Stegenga.

The meeting November 10 will be a 1 o'clock luncheon in the Methodist church fellowship hall, with the Queen Esther circle, Mrs. Adelaide Jones, circle chairman, as hostess.

The cost of the luncheon is 65 cents and reservations should be made with a circle chairman or by calling the church office, CL 3-0099. A nursery will be provided for small children.

Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Frank H. Tribbey will be tea hostess for the dessert bridge sponsored by Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club, of Arlington Heights, to be held November 12 in the high school cafeteria at 8:30 p.m.

The dessert bridge will be the program for the November meeting of the club.

Club members are invited to bring as many guests as they wish and play their favorite game of cards. Donations of $1.00 per person will be used for the parish building fund.

Academy Mothers Card Party Nov. 6

The Mothers' club of St. Patrick Academy, Touhy and LaGrange rd., Des Plaines, will hold their annual fall card party November 6 at 8 p. m. at the academy.

Proceeds of the event will be used for the benefit of the academy. Mrs. Steinbrunner is chairman and Mrs. Robinson, both of Park Ridge, is co-chairman of the party.

Newcomers' Club Plans Card Party

There is still time to make reservations for the Arlington Heights Newcomers' club card party at the Evanston Public Service Co., 11 Church st., Evanston, November 14 at 1:30 p. m.

A program on modern cookery will precede the card party. The price of admission is $1. The public is invited and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Charles Strother, Clearbrook 3-5556, or from Mrs. George Tannery, Clearbrook 3-7485. Please call for ticket reservations or pick up tickets before November 12. Refreshments will be served.

WSCS To Hold Toy Fair, Clinic

A toy fair and clinic for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church of Arlington Heights will be conducted November 18 by Robert Marsh of the Village Store, Arlington Heights.

Toys will be demonstrated in the church gym from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p. m. Husbands and guests are invited for the evening session.

Orders will be taken for the toys which can be paid for on delivery. The 10% profit which will be given to the WSCS will be divided among the circles for their project work.

Failure to Stop for School Bus in Violation of State Law

Failure to stop while a school bus is loading or unloading children is in violation of the state motor vehicle act. Since the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce has received numerous complaints regarding this they have asked Paddock Publications to quote the law verbatim.

Chapter 95½, Article XIV, Section 99, Motor Vehicle Act of the State of Illinois: "The driver of a vehicle upon meeting or overtaking any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall immediately stop his vehicle and shall not pass such school bus while such children are alighting therefrom or embarking thereon."

The Chamber urges the public's cooperation with this law. It will help to avoid injury to a child, as well as keeping the motorist from being arrested and paying a big fine.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Understanding that God made man in His own image and likeness, spiritual and perfect, and holding to this divine fact, man can demonstrate his dominion and prove his eternal sonship. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 8. The subject will be ADAM AND FALLEN MAN.

The Golden Text is from Romans (5: 18) "As by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth . . . And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good" (Gen. 1: 26,31).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"God fashions all things, after his own likeness . . . Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make,—hence its unreality . . . Man reflects God; mankind represent the Adamic race, and is a human, not a divine, creation" (pp. 516, 525).

Mothers To See Telephone Movie

Mrs. D. V. Krebsbach, vice president of the Mothers' club of the Women's guild of St. James Catholic church, Arlington Hts., has arranged to have a telephone movie shown after the regular monthly business meeting of the group November 12 at 8:15 p. m. in the school hall.

The movie entitled, "Rehearsal," is an informal visit behind the scenes. Telephone Hour artists work before the microphone as the program is prepared for broadcast. This is a regular rehearsal of a radio network show telling the story of modern communications.

Firemen Answer 3 Calls, None Serious

Firemen in Arlington Heights were called out three different times the past week, but none of the fires were of a serious nature.

The first occurred October 29 at the Chesley Rapp home, 1212 W. Northwest hwy. A roast had caught fire in her oven but she managed to extinguish it before the firemen arrived.

A Call October 30 took them to a fire in a corn field on the east side of Wilke rd., just north of Northwest hwy.

They were called out the third time early Monday morning when a shack at 1012 N. Highland was discovered burning. The firemen spent almost an hour before the fire was put out.

Turnabout Dinner at Presbyterian Church Saturday; Men Chefs

Early ticket sales indicate that approximately 400 people will be served at the special turnabout dinner which is to be prepared by the men of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights this coming Saturday.

The staff of male cooks will work on preparations for the dinner all day Saturday with the serving beginning at 5 p.m., and continuing until 7:30 p.m., in the church dining room.

Tickets may be obtained at the Presbyterian church office or from division leaders of the Men's association: Earl Ogier, Laurence Smith or Albert Goldthwaite.

The French-style menu, announced by Chef de Cuisine James W. Webster, is as follows: Hot Muller Cider, Iced Relishes, Hot Bread, Baked Stuffed Loin Chop (au Porc), Sweet Potatoes Hawaiian, Braised Onions and Petit Pois, Salad du Saison, Pastrie au Presbyter, and coffee.

The staff of assistants in the preparation of the meal has been named by Webster as follows: Bob Hutchinson, Rotisserie; W. R. Pownall, Pastry Chef; Vic Bernthal, Garde Manger; Al Goldthwaite, Saucier; Harry Bierma, Garde Manger; Jim Moore, Saucier; Perry Thomas, Sous Chef; Kurt Ziehm, Chef de Pantry; Nick Lattof, Chef du Truc; Ed Tierney and John Hall, assistant Pastry Chefs.

Charles Tully, who served as Maitre de for the Men's dinner two years ago will return to the post, and he will be assisted by Paul Fellingham, president of the Presbyterian Men, as captain.

YMC Group To Hear FBI Man

Ray Driscoll will talk on the "Work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation" at the November 6 meeting of the Young Married Couples club of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Hts.

Mr. Driscoll, who is with the Chicago office of the FBI, will also show the movie, "A Day With the FBI."

A potluck supper at 6:45 p. m. will precede the program. Further information may be obtained from the hosts of the evening, Dennis Malcolmson, CLearbrook 3-3372, or John Bruning, CLearbrook 3-3483.

Invite Parents to Attend College Night

Parents of juniors and seniors at Arlington Heights high school are urged to accompany their sons and daughters to the annual College night program at the high school tonight, Thursday.

Representatives from 95 colleges and universities will be on hand from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. to discuss the merits of their schools with interested parents and students.

Posting The Guard

by SGT. BOB SCHAFFER

In order to maintain a modern guard outfit, several things are necessary; modern weapons are mandatory for a modern army but even modern weapons are just so much junk if the men operating them don't know their "stuff." This shows the need for instructors who are well schooled in modern methods and primed in up-to-date information.

To aid in the training of guardsmen, the army allows the national guard to attend any and all instructor schools. Originally started for army personnel only, it was later decided the schools should be open to all of the armed forces.

The schools have courses which range in length from a week to more than a year.

The men instructing at these schools are all tested veterans with an excellent command of military knowledge. Most of them are combat veterans who utilize only tried and tested teaching methods; methods that have proved worthy in combat.

Company M has two men recently returned from Fort Benning, Ga., where they attended an infantry Leader Course for 17 weeks. SFC Jack Klowsky and Sgt. Elroy Wilke, both of Arlington, had only the highest praise for the school and its training. SFC Klowsky is the platoon leader for the 81 mm mortar platoon. Sgt. Wilke is a section leader in the recoilless rifle platoon.

Did you know that . . . Daniel Boone, the famous Indian scout, was a "guardsman" in Kentucky where he helped repulse Indian attacks throughout the state.

Ask Rezoning

A petition from Elmer Landmeier, of Arlington Heights, for hearings on the proposed rezoning of 28 acres on the south side of Pratt avenue (if extended) between Elmhurst road and the Chicago and North Western railroad, Elk Grove township, from farming to heavy industry, was referred to the county zoning board Thursday by the public service committee of the county board.

The county zoning board was asked to hold public hearings on a petition by Ernest H. VonBergen, of Elmhurst rd., Arlington Heights, for the rezoning of 20 acres on the south side of Foster ave., 670 feet east of Canfield rd., Norwood Park township, from farming to residence, by the public service committee of the county board Thursday.

VonBergen is also asking for a variation to reduce each lot size to a minimum of 8,500 square feet and each maintaining an average minimum width of 60 feet. This was referred to the zoning board also.

You're in the driver's seat for only $2248.88*

It's your money, of course—but we'd like to see you make the most of it.

That's why we publish the price of the big Buick SPECIAL here—to make Point #1: you can buy this great performer for just a few dollars more than the so-called "low-price three."

But Point #2—the smart point—is this:

When you put up those few extra dollars for the Buick pictured here, you're in the driver's seat of a lot more automobile.

You boss extra power — more satisfying power—walloping Buick Fireball 8 power —highest ever found in a Buick SPECIAL.

You get extra room—a lot more comfortable room — real, man-sized, 6-passenger room — as much room as you get in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

You enjoy extra satisfaction — more solid satisfaction—in the ride of this big, broad, road-steady traveler that's cushioned by coil springs on all four wheels, and engineered with all the other costly features of the Million Dollar Ride.

And, speaking of extras — here you get, at no extra cost, a long list of standard equipment that most other cars at or near the price of this Buick charge you for, as "extras" on the bill of sale.

So, as we said—it's your money—and it's your move.

If you're aiming for the driver's seat of a hard-to-beat buy—for a lot less than you think—come in and see us soon.

New Fiction: "Lord Vanity" by Samuel Shellabarger. In "Lord Vanity" as in his previous novels, Dr. Shellabarger combines with skill the art of storytelling with a thorough knowledge of the period of which he writes. "Lord Vanity" is entertainment of the highest order, a masterpiece of historical fiction.

"City of Anger" by William Manchester. This magnificent novel is the story of a struggle, the struggle you see every day all around you.

"WHITE WINGS" by Elizabeth Goudge. A collection of short stories.

"Silent Army" by Chin Kee Onn. A novel of Guerrilla warfare in Malaya.

"The Nightingales Are Singing" by Monica Dickens. A sensitive and compassionate account of the troublesome first years in an Anglo-American marriage.

"A Place to Stand" by Ann Bridge. A tense novel of love and intrigue.

"The Right Place For Love" by Charlotte Edwards. A story of 3 marriages; the story of one small town and its people.

"The Eternal Voyagers" by Robert F. Mirvish. A clear-sighted, vigorous novel of men, their ship, and the sea.

"India Allan" by Elizabeth Boatwright Colver. Filled with colorful picturesque detail of life in the old South; an exciting tale of fulfillment of a woman's love.

"The Mustard Seed" by Vicki Baum. A novel of the grand scale with tremendous scope. Once again Vicki Baum has shown herself to be a born storyteller.

"STORM HAVEN" by Frank G. Slaughter. A novel of the Florida cattle drive during the war between the states.

"Anna Fitzalan" by Marguerite Steen. A novel of modern marriage by the author of "The Sun Is My Undoing."

"The Shadows of the Images" by William E. Barrett. Four people were caught up in the whirlpool of good and evil that eddies through the pages of this turbulent novel.

NON-FICTION:

"Halibut Schooner" by Lyman Ellsworth. An exciting account of present-day adventure in Alaskan waters.

"Much Ado About Music" by Kathleen Lowance. "Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield" by Cecil Roth.

"Here's How" by Helen Greer. 786 popular suggestions for simplifying the housewife's everyday tasks.

"John Hancock" by Herbert S. Allan. Patriot in Purple.

"THE COFFEE TRAIN" by Margarethe Shank. The story of a Norwegian Family in America told with humor and tenderness.

"Vermont Tradition" by Dorothy Canfield Fisher. The biography of an outlook on life.

"Some Enchanted Evenings" by Deems Taylor. The story of Rodgers and Hammerstein.

"Lookout, Wife" by Jeanne Beaty. The exciting true story of a modern young couple who fled civilized life to man a fire station overlooking the Salmon National Forest of Idaho.

"Thurber Country" by James Thurber. A new collection of pieces about males and females, mainly of our own species.

"Life Is Worth Living" by Fulton J. Sheen. Here is a book that millions of Americans have been requesting and waiting for.

"Ceiling Unlimited" by Lloyd Morris. The story of American aviation from Kitty Hawk to Supersonics.

The Illinois Library association will holds its 57th annual conference in Chicago with headquarters at the LaSalle hotel from Nov. 5 to 7. More than 500 librarians from all parts of the state are expected to attend the conference. "Libraries in an Anxious World" is the theme of the conference. Mrs. Charles Kule, librarian, will represent Arlington Heights at all sessions.

Adding to the performance factor of the 1954 De Soto is the greater power of the Fire Dome V-8 engine, increased from 160 to 170 horsepower. With a higher compression ratio of 7.5 to 1, De Soto's Fire Dome V-8 delivers greater performance and efficiency, and its torque is improved at medium speeds.

High School Operetta, 'A Waltz Dream,' Set for November 14

Most of the preparations for the performance of the operetta "A Waltz Dream" by students of Arlington Heights high school are completed except for the long and arduous practice.

The operetta, with music by Oscar Straus and lyrics by Joseph Herbert, is in three acts. The action takes place in the hall of the royal palace of Maximilian X, the King of Sylvania, who has just returned to Sylvania with his daughter, the Princess Helene, after a holiday in Vienna.

The court is gratified to learn that the obstinate princess has finally selected a husband. Her marriage will stabilize the dynasty and will also be a means of getting a foreign loan for the bankrupt monarchy. The husband whom she has selected is Niki, a lowly lieutenant of the Austrian Hussars. Her choice was made because he reminds her so much of her childhood sweetheart, Rupert, who is now exiled in England.

Things become complicated when Niki falls in love with an American artist, Kay Robinson, and tries to get out of marrying the Princess Helene. The second act scene is a cafe garden to which Niki goes to hear Kay sing. Although this is hardly the place one would expect to find the prospective groom of a princess, we find a double wedding in progress as the play comes to a close.

Details of the story needed to fill out this sketch may be observed at the performance in the high school auditorium November 14, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Some of the musical numbers which Straus and Herbert have incorporated in this operetta are "A Soldier Stole Her Heart," "Love Cannot be Bought," "Love's Roundelay," "The Family's Ancient Tree," "Life is Love and Laughter," "Sweetest Maid of All."

New DeSoto On Display Nov. 5

More glamour, more comfort, more performance are in store in the new 1954 De Soto Automatic, which goes on display in De Soto - Plymouth dealerships all over the country November 5.

Leading the list of notable improvements in the new De Soto is PowerFlite—the finest fully-automatic transmission ever offered the motoring public.

In combination with such previous De Soto advancements as full - time power steering and power brakes, the 1954 De Soto with Power-Flite is an "automatic" automobile reaching new peaks in style, comfort and performance.

IN THE STYLING category, clean smooth-flowing body lines blend to produce a longer, wider car with a low, road-hugging look. A forward-motion styling theme dominates the exterior appearance of the new De Soto from the sparkling new "floating" grille and smoothly - contoured new bumper to distinctive new tail-light clusters.

An important contribution to the new De Soto's riding comfort is No-Sway ride control suspension, minimizing body "lean" and eliminating tire squeal on turns, while providing improved control and all-around stability. A stiffer frame, redesigned front and rear body mountings and new rear spring mountings are also contributing factors to this new controlled ride.

CONSISTING of a new torque converter and two-speed planetary transmission, PowerFlite weighs less and has fewer parts than any other fully-automatic transmission on the market. With this simplicity in design, PowerFlite has the highest over-all torque multiplication ratio (4.47 to 1) in drive range in the industry. Instantaneous response and flashing getaway make PowerFlite's superior performance immediately evident.

Smoothness of operation is inherent in the design of De Soto's PowerFlite transmission. From the time the engine is started and the selector lever moved to "drive," the driver does not have to move his foot from the accelerator unless he wants to slow down. There is only one fully-automatic shift from starting gear to direct drive. Dependent on the driver's wish, this automatic shift takes place between 15 and 65 miles per hour.

IF ADDITIONAL acceleration is desired after the car is in direct drive, the driver has only to press the accelerator to the floor to "kick-down" into low gear. The transmission also automatically down-shifts any time car speed falls below 11 miles per hour.

'Artic Holiday' Theme Of Next Travel Topic

The travel and adventure series of the Arlington Heights adult evening school will feature Lewis and Betty Rasmussen in "Arctic Holiday" November 10 at 8 p.m., in the high school. This is the first motion picture ever produced of the Caribou Eskimo and some of the thirty million Caribou upon which they depend for their lives.

The film has been proclaimed one of the most entertaining and unique pictures ever to have come out of the far north, with its views of the western shores of the Hudson Bay in Arctic Canada, and the Caribou-Eskimo who are the last group of people on this continent to emerge from the darkness of the stone age. Shown for the first time on film is the dramatic drum dance, relic of Eskimo life a thousand years ago. The picture provides exciting contrast through the quiet and intimate studies of bird and plant life, alternating with the breathtaking white-whale hunt in the frigid waters of Hudson Bay.

The climax of the color story pictures the annual Caribou hunt far inland with three Eskimo hunters, where is seen the vast southward migration of many thousands of barren-ground Caribou. The whole earth seems completely covered at times with a seething mass of animal life which means life itself to the Eskimos, their sole source of a complete diet of meat, the clothing for their bodies, and still source of much of the religious inspiration of these most primitive people. "Arctic Holiday" promises to bring an evening of adventure and beauty with its amazing story from the land of "eleven months of winter and one month of poor sledding."

Take Part in Human Relations Conference

Janann Jarrett and Janet Siegel, seniors at Arlington Heights high school, hove been chosen as group leaders for the Tri-County high school conferences on human relations, which will meet November 12 at Thorne hall on campus of Northwestern university.

Janann will serve as group discussion leader on the topic "How do American practices of discrimination and segregation relate to our foreign policy and our role of free world leadership?"

Janet will serve as recorder for the group discussing the topic "Do demoncracy and discrimination mix?"

Nine students of the high school will attend the conference, two from each common learnings IV class and one from the sociology class.

TV NEWS

by Don Hager

Jimmy Durante is no fool. While he can get plenty of laughs with his oversized proboscis and his mangled grammar, he's smart enough to know that pretty girls are also an asset to any form of entertainment. His Comedy Hour shows are no exception, and I want you to be the first to know that the girls he hires are known professionally as the Wanda Smith Cover girls. Their names are Roberta Luane, Bette Uitti, Karleen Millard and Joyce Blunt. They even have an alternate, Marietta Elliott, who learns the routines of each girl just in case something happens.

Jimmy isn't alone in seeing the value of pretty girls to a TV format. Jackie Gleason has always given a big place in his shows to the June Taylor dancers . . . and this year he's gone all out to give a bigger place to his "cover girls" including the one with the very special way of saying, "And away we go!"

There are conflicting stories about the reason behind the departure of Julius LaRosa and Archie Bleyer from the Redhead's radio and TV gang, but one thing is certain. The Redhead can still do just what he wants with his shows . . . and his fans will stay loyal . . . even though the network big brass are upset. Don't let your TViewing be upset by a dim, fuzzy or unsteady picture. Let our experienced TV technicians service your set for best possible reception, at DON HAGER'S TV & APPLIANCE, 11 W. Davis St., Arlington Heights. Phone CLearbrook 3-0700. Open 4 nights a week — Mon., Tues., Thurs., Fri.

SHOPPING with SHARON

Perhaps you've admired the new Village Store on east Northwest hwy., and if you've already stopped in and browsed around, you know that appearances are not deceiving, for here is something new in this area. Bob Marsh, the proprietor, is carrying glass made by some of the most famous glass companies in the world. All his glass items, including lamps styled for modern or period surroundings, are seconds or close outs featured at half price.

One of his most famous and best glass lines is made by the Blenko Glass Co. Today this is the only company in this country making antique stained glass by the "muff" process, used, for example, at the time the windows of the Cathedral of St. Julien at Le Mans, France, were made in the eleventh century, the oldest stained glass windows in existence. Today you can see Blenko's stained glass in windows at St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Harkness Library at Yale and many other places. The glass today is made as it was generations ago and is completely handmade. Although Bob Marsh also believes that better toys make better boys and girls and uses this reasoning for his toy section, I personally was fascinated by the glass, for I've never seen anything like it around here.

When children gather at a store to look and wish, it's a sure sign that this store must have what they want. This must be true of Hagenbring's Toy Circus, for it was packed with youngsters when I was there. What little future truck driver wouldn't be overjoyed with a true scale model truck from Hagenbring's and what little future housewife wouldn't love one of those Betty Crocker Junior Baking Kits at Hagenbring's.

The Toy Circus at Hagenbring's has toys for children of all ages. There are Flash Gordon space outfits, World of Tomorrow sets and walkie talkies. In the truck department there are the new tournahaulers and taveloaders, true scale models of those trucks used on actual jobs. The taveloader loads and piles as it moves along.

For little girls the Betty Crocker Jr. Baking Kit has 12 baking mixes and 21 baking utensils. You'll also find a complete selection of plastic and aluminum dishes in many designs. The formica table and chair sets with modern wrought iron legs are just like mothers'. And don't forget that Hagenbring's has a complete line of dolls in all styles, and they feature story book dolls and Vogue dolls, which are available with complete wardrobes for all occasions.

While you're concentrating on all those Christmas gifts for family and friends, don't forget that home of yours. Perhaps a new lamp or an end table is just what is needed to make that room complete, and what better time than now is there to put the finishing touches on that room. It will be all set for holiday entertaining. Maybe you've been planning to get a hide-a-bed to give your home an extra room or a dinette set for entertaining. You'll probably really need it during the holidays, so why not buy yourself a worth while Christmas present. You'll find a complete selection of all these items and many more at Arlington Furniture Mart, 211 S. State rd. They feature Simmons, Kroehler and Sealy hide-a-beds priced from $160. Furniture and all home accessories are available in provincial, traditional and modern design. Arlington Furniture Mart also carries a complete line of rugs by Alexander Smith, Lee and Maseland.

Flaherty's Jewelers, 2 N. Dunton st., are now featuring Wallace's new sterling silver pattern, Waltz of Spring. The pattern symbolizes the magical beauty of a maiden whirling happily to the strains of a waltz. It's a contemporary sterling design to be beloved by all ages and to enhance every setting. This pattern, combining modern and traditional, in third dimension beauty flows from front, to side and back . . . completely encircles each piece, so that it is beautiful from every possible view.

Flaherty's carry a complete line of Wallace, International, Heirloom, Rogers and Alvin sterling silver. When you buy your silver on Flaherty's club plan you pay $5 down and $5 a month for a six piece place setting, and for every bride-to-be or housewife this club plan makes it possible for her to own her own sterling without unbalancing her budget.

There are so many things to think of as the holiday season approaches, but one of the first items that should be selected are Christmas cards, for as the time approaches, the assortment dwindles. At Aunt Pansy's you'll find an excellent selection of cards by Cordial, Looart Studio, the Charlotte Steiner Workshop, Fravessi-Lamont, Dur-Crest, Red Farm Studio and many others.

These cards can be ordered imprinted or plain and there are also many counter cards to choose from. You'll find a fine variety here of Christmas wrappings, an essential part of every gift. Aunt Pansy's is the House with the Red Door, 115 N. Dunton ave.

Elroy J. Winkelman, owner of Winkelman's Tire and Battery shop, 115 E. Davis st., feels that these balmy Indian summer days will soon come to a quick end. So now is the time to get your car all set for easy winter driving. A clogged or leaking radiator can result in serious motor damage, and if you take your car to Winkelman's you have no worries for they are specialists in battery, radiator and heater work, all of which is guaranteed. In addition to cleaning and repairing heaters and radiators, their store is well stocked with snow tires and skid chains and all other essentials for winter driving. For quick winter starting and warmth, make an appointment to take your car to Winkelman's soon.

Voice of Democracy Contest Opens at Arlington High School

Students at Arlington Heights high school are being given an opportunity to participate in the Voice of Democracy contest, sponsored by the National association of Radio and Television broadcasters, Radio - Television manufacturers association, and U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Purpose of the contest is to give youth an opportunity to consider seriously, and to speak in behalf of, the blessings, freedoms and opportunities traditional to this nation. The contest is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Contestants are to prepare a five minute broadcast script on the subject, "I Speak for Democracy," and deliver it orally in school and community elimination contests.

Explorers Hike Lincoln Trail

Explorers of Troop No. 32 of Arlington Heights hiked with the spirit of Abraham Lincoln from New Salem to Springfield, October 24. The explorers were Michael Moudry, Robert Siegel, Ronnie Blaschke, and George Moudry, their advisor.

NEW SALEM Park contains a Lincoln village, the buildings of which are constructed of logs and are maintained as in his time. Some of the buildings are a wool carding mill, tavern, village store, blacksmith shop, doctor's office, and homes. An official U.S. Post Office is operated in one of the log cabins. All of the interiors can be viewed as they existed over a hundred years ago.

The explorers slept on metal cots during the preceeding night in a cabin reserved in advance. Most of the hike was along the highway and very much near the same as Lincoln traveled when he walked to Springfield on business. The trail is marked by the familiar silhouette of Lincoln with top hat and umbrella followed by a Boy Scout.

THE BOYS walked in pairs and were released at about three minute intervals from the Lincoln village where credentials were examined, endorsed, and a register signed by the hikers. There were other check in stations along the way, and the final at two blocks from the state capitol building. A shower and swim climaxed the event at the YMCA before their departure for home. Their driver was Fred Siegel, chairman of their troop committee who also acted in the capacity of movie producer and announced a premier showing to be held in the near future.

Distance and time: 20.3 miles in 6 hours and 45 minutes without a blister.

Women's Advisory Group Learns About Police Program in Heights

At the October meeting of the Arlington Heights Women's Advisory committee to the Mayor, members were informed by Chief Carl Skoog on the program and duties of the Arlington Heights police department.

Chief Skoog stressed the following: that we have an exceptionally good town; that we have been fortunate in the type of people who have chosen Arlington Heights as their home; and in the remarkably few incidents caused by undesirable elements. However, he concluded to maintain and improve our standards requires constant vigilance.

Charles Rehfeldt of the board of trustees addressed the members, expressing the appreciation of the board for the committee's active interest in the community and its welfare.

Both guests joined in the general discussion which followed, as the more specific aims of a general safety program were discussed.

Order Of The Arrow Fellowship

The area 7 B Fellowship of the Order of the Arrow was held last week end at Camp Kiwanis near Willow Springs. The Lakota Lodge, the lodge of our council, sent 27 representatives, which was the largest group at the affair. Representing the Blackhawk district at the Fellowship were the following:

Post 707, Arlington Heights — John McClaughry, lodge chief; Jim Redwanz, Editor lodge newspaper; "Weed" Crittenden, committee chairman; Dan Vittum, Kent Petelle, Jeff Hanor, brotherhood member and Don Plank, brotherhood member.

Troop 32, Arlington Heights — George Moundry, advisor, Mickey Moudry, Bob Seigel, Wayne Rydberg.

Post 156, Mount Prospect — Bob Russell, vice lodge chief, Joe Charles.

Post 136, Prospect Heights — "Farley" Watson, corresponding secretary.

Troop 7 — Post 707 Hold Pancake Supper

Troop 7 and Post 707 would like to take this opportunity to thank all of their friends who bought tickets to the annual affair. It was a big success. More details will be released next week.

Green Bar Training This Week End

Jordan Minerva, assistant scout executive of the Northwest Suburban council, along with the trained leaders who attended the Schiff Scout reservation in Mendham, New Jersey, is in charge of the Green Bar Training Course to be held this week end at Camp Baden Powell. He has requested that all leaders, from patrol leader up attend this annual affair. Address any questions to Mr. Minerva at the Boy Scout office in Park Ridge.

Camping And Activities Committee Meeting

The camping and activities committee will hold its meeting at the scout office in Park Ridge November 9.

Training Committee Meeting

The training committee will hold a meeting at the New North school in Des Plaines November 9.

Explorer Dance Coming!

Let's have all of the Explorers from our district attend the Explorer Ball to be held right here in Arlington Heights at the field house November 27. All posts will be notified of the affair soon.

C. E. T. No. 2 Finished

Council Explorer training is now finished. However, a week end campout early in December will be held in connection with the course.

New Features Starting

With this publication we are setting off on a new excursion. Advancement! It is our firm belief that not only will the sort of thing covered in our column be helpful to new scouts, but it will also refresh older scouts' memories.

The first section of the Tenderfoot Scout requirements is as follows:

1. Scout Spirit — Learning about the ideals and traditions of Scouting:
   1. Repeat from memory the Scout Oath or Promise and the twelve points of the Scout Law, the Scout Motto, and the Scout Slogan, and explain the meaning of each in your own words.
   2. Describe the scout badge and explain its meaning. Tell when to wear the Scout uniform and how to use and care for it.
   3. Give the Scout sign, salute and handclasp.

Here are the solutions to each of the above:

1. All are in the Handbook for Boys.
2. The meaning of the badge is as follows:

The three points refer to the three parts of the scout law. The two stars stand for truth and knowledge. The eagle symbolizes the U. S. of America. The scroll, which contains the scout motto, represents a smile. The knot at the bottom is a reminder to do a good turn daily.

3. The scout sign is as illustrated. It is given by raising the right arm. The upper arm should be straight, and out to the side. See illustration below.

ALBERT A. WINDLE

Blind Minister to Speak at High School

Albert A. Windle, blind minister from Piermont, New York, will speak to students of Arlington Heights high school at an all-school assembly Friday afternoon.

He deals in an inspirational way with the means of perception available to the blind. He has long been popular with high school audiences for his sense of humor as well as his approach to the subjects with which he deals.

Girl Scouts

Troop 27, the fourth grade Brownies of Dryden Place school, Arlington Heights, were hostesses at a party for two second grade troops now forming at the school.

They presented a play, "The Brownie Story." Spoon dolls were dressed as the characters and two boxes served as stages depicting a living room and a woods scene. The dolls' movements were provided by Daryl Danis, Winnie Severin, Mary Ann Robinson, Linda Lee Scott and Patty Hubbell. Lines were read by Katy Wit, Barbara Legge, Taffy Pettersen, Judy Wake and Carol Schindler. Stage hands and expediters were Suzy Larsen and Stephanie Bratko aided by the troop leaders, Mrs. Ted Wake and Mrs. Samuel Wit.

Refreshments of cider and cookies were served after the play.

Custodians Meet

The Northwest school custodian association met October 15 at Grayslake, with President Allen Wick, head custodian at Glenbrook high school, presiding.

Custodians from all of the Northwest conference schools met to discuss problems pertaining to school maintenance.

Meetings are held monthly from October through June.

Million Penny Fund to Aid Libertyville Pool

Ever wonder what a million pennies would look like in one pile?

The business and professional women of Libertyville intend to find out—they are launching a campaign to collect a million pennies for Adler Pool expansion.

Opening gun in the campaign was fired Saturday, when the women entered a float depicting the "million penny" idea in the Homecoming parade. A special ceremony surrounded the donation of the first penny.

Collection jars will be placed in various stores and business offices in Libertyville and Mundelein.

The money collected will be placed in a fund to be used for expanding the park pool.

It's a Deal!!
You want a New Ford!
We want your old car!

HERE'S A SUGGESTION:
Drive in today to see the new, "Worth More" Ford. While you're seeing for yourself the many features that make Ford your best buy, we'll give you a price on your car. And it'll be a price you'll like! Just pick out the model you want (Ford has eighteen of 'em!) and the deal's practically made! We're prepared for quick delivery and your old car will probably be your down payment. It's as easy as that. Should take less than an hour—15 minutes for business details and the rest of the time for us to show you first hand that Ford is the car that delivers the most for the money.

For the Answer to this Question:

Burglars, evidently disappointed at finding little money or jewelry, left our home in a mess. Dishes and glasses smashed, furniture marred, upholstery slashed, and our television tube broken. Does your household theft insurance cover this vandalism in addition to the few items stolen?

Fedder will officiate at the ceremony. Interment, Ridgewood. Mr. Ninnemann will be in state at Oehler's Funeral Homes, Des Plaines, until noon Saturday. From noon until the time of the funeral services he will be in state at the church.

Mr. Ninnemann died at the home of his son in Hamden, Conn., November 3. He was born January 31, 1886, in Germany. A graduate of Addison seminary in 1907, he taught school in Missouri. From 1918 to 1950, when he retired, he taught school at Immanuel Lutheran school, Des Plaines. He was also president of the Des Plaines Savings and Loan Association from September 26, 1932 until September 18, 1953. At the time of his death he was chairman of the board of Des Plaines Savings and Loan Association.

He leaves a son, Karl; a daughter, Esther, with whom he made his home in Des Plaines; and two grandchildren. His wife, Hertha, nee Hoeppner, died in 1934.

Gains Promotion

The appointment of Frank Krempel of Mount Prospect, assistant chief engineer of Stewart-Warner Electric since 1951, as engineering head of government development and production contracts in the electronics field was announced today by Stanley Kolanowski, chief engineer of that division of Stewart-Warner Corporation.

Krempel will direct operations of the engineering department in design or development work for armed forces contracts in addition to modification of current military items to meet changing requirements, Kolanowski said.

Starting with Stewart-Warner Electric in August, 1940, as a laboratory assistant, Krempel headed the components department, dealing with suppliers and underwriters, as operations in the electronics field expanded until he became assistant chief engineer.

A native of Chicago, Krempel attended RCA Institute and is a member of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

Krempel resides with his wife, the former Lorraine Deinart, and three children Ronald, 7, Richard, 6, and Nancy, 2½, at 20 S. Edward st., Mount Prospect.

Remedial Teaching

Four public school teachers from the Arlington Heights area attended the meeting of the National Association for Remedial Teaching, at the Illinois Institute of Technology, October 24.

Teachers attending the meeting were Dennis R. Malcolmson, principal of Elk Grove school; Agnes Skadberg, teacher at North school; Martha Sapp, guidance counselor for Arlington Heights public schools; and Alfred Snap, English teacher at Arlington Heights high school.

Marks 30th Year With Telephones

A well known Mount Prospect resident, Kenneth E. Arnold, 414 Can Dota, recently marked his 30th year of service in the telephone industry.

Presently an engineer for Illinois Bell in the company's Chicago office, Arnold began his career in 1923 with Western Electric. He joined Illinois Bell a year later as a central office maintenance man at Elgin. In 1941, Arnold was promoted to plant service foreman, and two years later was appointed wire chief at Arlington Heightss.

Besides being very active in church work in Arlington Heights, Arnold is a member of the Masonic organization, the Engineers club, and the telephone pioneers of America, an orzganization limited to telephone people with 21 or more years' service in the telephone industry.

Arnold's wife, Iris M., is a telephone operator in the company's Arlington Heights office. The couple met while Iris worked as tool supervisor and Ken as central office maintenanceman at Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold have a son, Robert, majoring in speech and dramatics at Northwestern university.

Sheppard New President Of Area School Board

George H. Sheppard, 210 E. Marion ave., Prospect Heights, was elected president of the Arlington area school board association at their meeting last Thursday. Sheppard is a member of the Arlington high school board.

The association meets four times a year and its membership is comprised of school board members from the boards of the high school and the public and parochial schools in the Arlington high school boundaries.

Their business is concerned with the discussion of common problems. They often give thought to the curriculums of the upper grades and the high school, endeavoring to find ways of revision so that the transition from grade school to high school is made easier for the pupil. School finances, especially where small schools have limited taxing power, receives much consideration from the members.

Sheppard's presidency follows that of W. H. Spears, another Prospect Heighter and president of the Prospect Heights school board. (AM

Feehanville School

The news that the rummage sale sponsored by the Feehanville PTA, was a huge success and that they cleared more than one hundred dollars, is probably not so new to some of the members, but there are many who would be just as happy to hear it as I am to tell it.

The weather took such a sudden turn that week end that several members were hit with sudden colds and the flu. I hear Vera Brookhouzen was one of those taken ill, and Miss Idyl Nipper waited till the rummage sale was over and then she too succumbed.

Things are a little quieter now that Halloween is over, but it will be weeks before all the candy, gum, suckers and popcorn balls our children accumulated by knocking at doors that willingly opened to all of their outstretched hands, will be consumed. Everyone seemed to be eager to help them fill their shopping bags.

Miss Lois Rudd, teacher at Feehanville, says the children had a grand time at their party in school Friday afternoon, and she wishes to thank the parents for sending such general donations for refreshments.

We have just had another occasion to be thankful that our children are protected by school insurance. Friday morning Betty Broberg was taken to the doctor and received six stitches on her forehead due to an injury sustained while playing on the monkey bars. Mrs. Sandquist was the good Samaritan who took Mrs. Broberg and Betty in to the doctor. Betty felt worse over missing the Halloween party than she did over the injury and felt so much better when she returned from the doctor that she went back to school and the party.

Frank Castre, a pupil at Feehanville, has been allowed to bring his pet lizard, "Albert," to school with him—I wonder how the girls liked that? Miss Rudd delighted me by adding the word "ugh" in her school report. It happens I feel the same way about lizards.

Birthday congratulations I neglected to extend in October were to Thomas Goggin, who was six on October 12, Vaughn Campbell, seven October 21, Carol Vetrano six, October 23, and Donald Dobbratz seven on October 28. Carol Vetrano will be living in Des Plaines after this as they moved Saturday. Vaughn Campbell went to Michigan over the week end of October 10.

Donna Barton visited in Ohio.

Scout News

Troop committee of Brownie Troop 231 are having a bake sale Friday at the Forest River Community club, from 7 to 9 p.m. The purpose of the bake sale is to raise funds to purchase uniforms for the leaders. I hope this column reaches enough subscribers in time to help make the bake sale a success. Remember, don't bake your usual week end pastry—buy it and help a good cause.

The Brownies held a Fall Mother and Daughter tea at their Tuesday meeting October 26. The children were in costume and had a good deal of fun, as they played games, sang songs, and made paper-bag masks to confuse their mothers. Tea and cupcakes were the main refreshments.

Brownies having birthdays to celebrate in November are Dottie LeVine on the third, Vivian Brookhouzen the fourteenth, and Donna Barton on the twenty-fifth.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts also had a lot of fun at their Thursday meeting when they celebrated Halloween with a party. The girls all came in costume. The games patrol had prizes for each girl, some as winners of games, the rest for costumes. The Refreshment patrol were lavish with fine foods, and the Decorating patrol brought colorful table settings. The party ended with the annual Ghost story, told with appropriate props.

What do you say, mothers, that we set a few moments aside this week to express our appreciation to these fine women who lead our children with understanding and poise—the Scout Leaders of our troops.

A contest is being held between the Bald Eagles and the Little Beavers, both groups belonging to the Stockaders of the Forest River church, to bring in new members. The losers will buy a supper for the winners at the close of the contest, which will be around Christmas time.

The boys are going to be quite busy the next two months, repairing and painting old toys to be given away for Christmas gifts to missions and orphanages. If you have any toys that your children have grown tired of or no longer can use, please donate them to the church. It seems I'm always asking for donations of one kind or another, but this is one time I urge you to heed the request, as I can readily see the goodness and kindness in an endeavor such as this.

Mrs. Viola Olson, who lives on Foundry rd., Forest River, asked me to report the theft of her son's bicycle a week ago. It was a maroon and white bike with red rubber handles, and pressman's tape wound around the handle bars. One tire has a gold cap on the valve. If anyone, anywhere in this district, has seen such a bike, please notify Mrs. Olson. Her number is Vanderbilt 4-8818, or call me at Vanderbilt 4-2291. Our children are so lost without their bikes to travel around on.

So long till next week.

Many Thanks

Thanks are extended to Mrs. Kenneth Hartman for donating the proceeds from her Stanley party held at her home October 8 to the mothers' club. Mrs. Hartman was given 12 per cent of all the sales for having the party. The total proceeds netted $8.

Thank you also is extended Richard Stier for having the square dance tickets printed and paying for them.

Halloween Party

The upper grade pupils and their teacher, Mrs. McKown, arranged a nice Halloween party Friday afternoon for the third through eighth grade youngsters. Those who were on the decorating and game committee were Juanita Graves, Patty Hartman, Margaret Swanson, Judy Sullivan, Sharon Luczak, Ted Robinson, Ralph Westberg, Tom Sande, and Roland Graves. They did a grand job of decorating and deserve a lot of praise.

Thanks to the following mothers for supplying the refreshments and serving: Mrs. Westberg, Mrs. Jevne, Mrs. Sullivan, and Mrs. Brodnan. The refreshments consisted of cupcakes, popcorn balls, apples and pop. Mr. Brown and three of his assistants were judges for the best costumes. Tom Sande won first prize, a ball point pen. He was costumed as a flapper girl. Paul Salinas, as a clown, won second prize, also a ball point pen. Patty Hartman, as a bum, won third prize, which was a key chain and a magic book. Donald Markus, dressed as an old woman won fourth prize, which was also a key chain and a magic book.

The mothers' club provided the pop and prizes.

Forest View 4-H Club Needs Assistant Leader

Forest View 4-H club, Arlington Heights, met at the home of their leader, Russel Anderson, October 23.

The following officers were elected: Gerald Thon, president; Gary Gappert, vice-president; Kurt Mollenkamp, secretary; Ralph Westberg, treasurer; Ronald Anderson, reporter, and Carl Scharringhausen, recreation chairman.

Fifteen boys are members of this group, and an assistant leader is urgently needed.

Following the discussion of projects, refreshments were served.

148 New Homes

Plans for the Libertyville Estates subdivision on Buckley rd. have been announced by E. J. Bruns, contractor handling the development.

Bruns obtained a rezoning from farming to residential for an 80-acre tract bounded by Bradley rd. and the Des Plaines River. The area adjoins Adler Park on the south, and is situated near Arlington Farms-CYO Polo Farms.

Bruns said that an 148-home subdivision is planned and that the development will include hard top streets. Sub-contractor bids on roads and other improvements will be let shortly with the full program in effect next spring.

Homes to be constructed on ¼ acre to 1 acre lots, will range in price from $15,000 to $30,000.

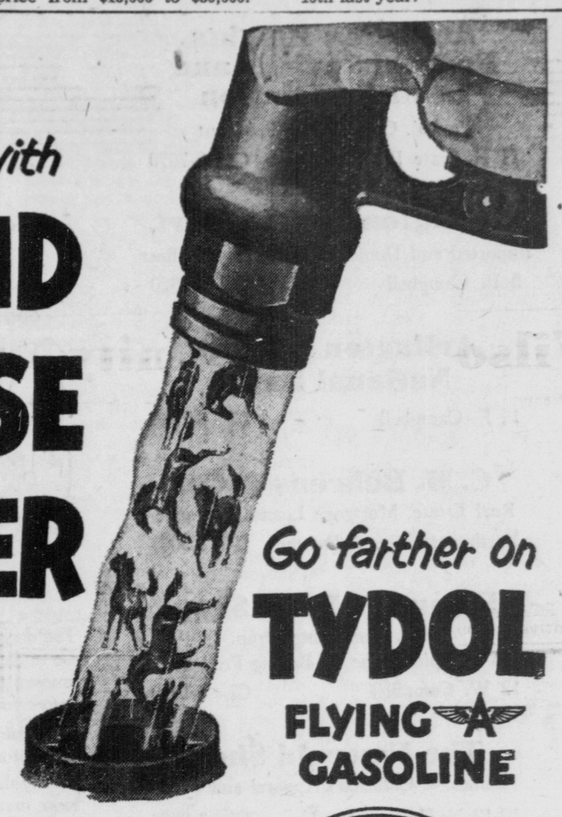

Larry Jenness Elected Prexy of Debate Union

Larry Jenness, instructor of speech and debate at Arlington Heights high school, was elected president of the Metropolitan Debate Union at the annual meeting of that group held recently in Chicago.

The Metropolitan Debate Union, considered to be one of the largest and most active independent debate leagues in the country, is composed of schools from northern Indiana and Illinois. The Illinois state debate champs for the past two years have come from this group.

Now entering its third year of competition in the league, Arlington finished 16th its first year and 10th last year.

"Are you ambitious for your children, too?
Then, listen," says Mrs. Mary Callon, of Indianapolis, Indiana

"I sent my twins to college - by saving on the Payroll Savings Plan!"

"I've been a working widow since the children were eight," Mary Callon says. "Only through Payroll Savings could I have saved the money that sent them to college."

Today, when you saw your little one off to school, did you wish in your heart you could some day send him to college? You can—just as Mary Callon did!

One sure way is to begin saving today on the Payroll Savings Plan.

It works because it makes you save. Automatically saves for you before you have a chance to spend your pay.

Here's how simple it is:

You decide how much you'd like to save out of every pay. Go to the payroll office where you work and sign to save that amount every payday. The sum is then automatically saved before you draw your pay.

You can sign up to save any amount you wish. Your savings automatically purchase Series E Bonds, delivered to you. Then your savings really grow. For every Savings Bond earns more money—at an average of 3% interest per year, compounded semiannually, when held to maturity.

How about it? For your sake, and your family's sake, will you sign up for Payroll Savings—today? If you're self-employed, ask your banker to start you on the Bond-A-Month Plan. It's as easy as Payroll Savings!

How you can reach your savings goal on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan

	If you want approximately
	$1,000	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 5 years, save	$3.75	$18.75	$37.50	$93.75
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save	$1.85	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save	$0.75	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday to $375 a month. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

Start your child's college fund today—Invest in United States Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan!

ARLINGTON AIMS FOR 4-3 RECORD AGAINST MAINE FRIDAY

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

ONE OF THE FINEST men in the coaching business in the Northwest conference is the subject of our sincere congratulations this week. Bill Lehman of Ela-Vernon is without any question one of the best football coaches in the smaller schools of the Chicago area.

It is not just because his expertly coached team has clinched an undisputed Northwest Conference championship.

He did a fine job last year taking second and five years ago when he started football at Ela and wound up second. No coach in the league has a better record.

ELA HAD ONLY THREE REGULARS back this year, but Lehmann, with a nack for getting the most out of boys and for developing green material into capable linemen, brought Lake Zurich folks their first grid title.

Glen Chaffin, Don Prouty, and Don Fenner were the varsity regulars from a year ago who missed the championship through a tie in the final game. This year their determined, alert play clinched the title early.

CHAMPIONSHIPS AROUND THE AREA have been pretty well decided. Barrington clinched an undisputed North Suburban by whipping previously unbeaten Lake Forest. Proviso has the Suburban league flag tucked away. Wheaton ran rough shod over the Little Seven and wants out of the league because the other schools wants this football powerhouse off their schedules.

LaGrange has the inside track to the West Suburban championship due to Arlington's 13-12 victory over unbeaten Hinsdale. "Bus" Ormsbee and his boys deserve a great hand for this giant killing feat. The cards gave warning against LaGrange that they were going to be really tough this year. Saturday they proved they were not fooling.

ARLINGTON FANS were happy again after Friday night's decision over Hinsdale. They've seen the Cardinals win three of four games at home this year, losing only to LaGrange in a contest that left no disgrace on the locals' field. Downers Grove and Riverside-Brookfield were the other victims.

"But," stated Coach "Bus" Ormsbee, "the boys still haven't reached their peak. We hope they can against Maine Friday night, but the Blue Demons are certain to be up for that one."

The fans have given Heights good support with a gross take that will approximate an average of just less than $1,000 per game. Many fans believe Arlington's athletic cycle has turned, and that bigger and better things are on the way.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT Northwest coaches will have their annual dinner meeting at Phil Johnson's restaurant and will select the official all-conference football team. Since last year when all Chicago papers and Paddock Publications polled the coaches and came up with different results in all-star players, the coaches have decided to pick just one team and issue the official list to all comers,

There are a lot of good boys this year, but not many out and out stars, so selections will be difficult to make.

SCORING IN THE NORTHWEST conference is so even that any one of quite a group of boys could finish on top. Benhart of Bensenville, Chaffin of Ela, Klaus of Grant, Eck of Palatine, Gallagher of Antioch, Gudgeon of Ela, and Boyd of Glenbrook all have a chance to win honors by topping the point total.

The leaders, Benhart and Chaffin, with 30 points, were both scoreless last week. Others are one TD behind.

Palatine set a new record for the school in football gate receipts this year with $1,669.00 for four home games . . . Al Willis will have a tough time deciding who gets the regional tournament in this area this year with fine gyms at Arlington Heights, Palatine, Ela-Vernon, Barrington, and Maine. Arlington or Maine will probably get the sectional. No one knows which region Glenbrook will be in with their new gym . . . Palatine closes the football season Friday night and starts basketball Saturday afternoon. At that the Pirates will have just five workouts before they open at home against Hampshire November 13. Practically all cage candidates play football so no early workouts were possible this year for Moylan's cagers.

DOWNERS GROVE will have wrestling this year, leaving only Glenbard in the West Suburban loop without the grapplers . . . The sport may become a league sport within a year or two . . . For the first time in history, a Libertyville frosh football team kept everyone eligible . . . Bob Nolan, ex-Wauconda star, has snatched two dozen aerials for Miami university in his sophomore year . . .

Coach C. M. Sarff, who's been coaching Bloom high football teams so many years, is now mentoring sons of former players he recalls, took the bull by the horns and dropped all-South Suburban center Andy Pascarella from the squad . . . It was a case of dis-interest in practice, with the usual warnings, etc. . . . Many's the coach who'd like to drop "the gripers" from their team, but hesitate to do so for varied reasons . . .

When Plainfield's punters recently kicked two balls in the Kankakee river in preparation for Wilmington, Coach Al Trumpy called a halt . . . Plainfield won anyway, 40-0 . . .

Oddity of the Michigan-Illinois series, there has never been a tie in 38 games . . . This Saturday will be the first day this year that Big Ten schools are playing nothing but—Big Ten schools . . . George Krpan, six-foot-five LaGrange center, is trying for a starting berth at DeKalb . . . Jim Worley of Mt. Prospect was one of the starters on this year's Grinnell squad frosh squad . . . Freshman prospects for basketball at University of Dubuque include John Busch of Palatine . . . York's John Reimer is listed as a three year veteran for the DeKalb wrestlers.

Cards Shoot For 1st Division If They Can Win

by BOB PADDOCK

Whether Arlington Heights high school gridders can have a successful season will be determined Friday night under the lights when the Cardinals journey to Maine to meet the Blue Demons in the final game of the year for both schools.

At vesent the locals are just one game ahead of Maine. Coach Ormsbee's boys can move into the first division providing Maine and Glenbard lose.

Whether they can turn the trick is questionable, in spite of the locals being slightly favored. Too often games are decided on spirit rather than statistics, and Maine will definitely be "up" for the Heights encounter.

ARLINGTON has scored just one touchdown in two years of trying against Maine. The locals were smeared, 41-6, two years ago and lost, 35-0, last season.

The game will be the last for 27 seniors on the Heights squad including regulars Dick Winterbauer, Carroll Werner, Roger Thomas, Don Hoth, Mike Deschner Bill Schaeffer, Charley Verret, Ken Lemke and Bob Turner.

John Milnamow, another fourth year man, broke an ankle tendon in the Hinsdale game and will be unable to play in the Maine game. He'll be out there for the toss of the coin, however, as co-captain. He's been one of the leading guards of the conference and will be sorely missed.

A tough moment in Arlington's 13-12 victory over Hinsdale Friday night is pictured above, with the white-shirted Cardinals shown determined to gain ground. The locals took possession of the ball just three times after the opening period, but that was enough as two blocked punts helped pave the way for victory. —Staff Photo.

Cagers Open Practice At Arlington

Basketball opened at Arlington Heights and other schools of the West Suburban league Monday, with seven of ten lettermen gone from Arlington.

New coach Howard Lester has just three veterans back. They include George Skelton, Roger Thomas and Bob Turner. The latter two are on the football squad, and won't report 'til next week.

LAST YEAR'S championship frosh-soph team, however, will send five of the first six boys to Coach Lester, including Dennis Maher, Wayne Mueller, Jack Riggs, Wayne Brumm and John Theis. Only one of last year's first six still with Coach Maurice Klotz and his sophomore five is Wayne Malzahn.

Just how Coach Lester's boys will show against other teams in the league is impossible to say at this point. Opening game is against Downers Grove December 4, with a trip to Barrington the next night.

Defending champ in the league is state titlist LaGrange in the varsity division with Heights and Downers tying for the frosh-sophs.

Favor LaGrange In West Suburban Cross Country

LaGrange and Glenbard are favored in Tuesday's West Suburban conference cross country meet, with Arlington rated third. The Cardinals lost to the Lyons township school, 23-39, and to Glenbard, 25-30. Otherwise the locals beat Downers, 22-37 and walked away from Riverside-Brookfield, York and Hinsdale. The Heights-Maine dual is slated for this Friday.

Both LaGrange and Glenbard will be competing this week in the state meet. The leave event will be held November 10 at Glenbard.

Running for Heights will be Don Drever, John Sheppard, Dave Ryden, Bob Rankine, Ray Hornbostel, Randy Thomas, Jim Fontaine, John Heintz, John Caltagarone and Lodiegard Reinke.

THE CARDINALS have a 6-2 cross country mark thus far this season, with the school's best team trimming Palatine and Leyden in addition to four league opponents.

An idea as to how the squad has improved the past two years can be gained by reviewing league results the past two seasons.

Even Fight Seen For 2nd Division Squads In NW

Saturday most schools except the Chicago public school and Catholic leagues close their schedules. Locally, the best games on tap are Palatine at Bensenville Friday night and Antioch at Wauconda Saturday afternoon. Local rivalry makes the Pirate-Bison clash a close ball game.

Comparative scores give the Pirates quite an edge but we will be surprised if they get many touchdowns at the expense of the Bisons as others have of late.

Right now we think Coach Feutz and Moyland have brought Palatine to the peak. Certainly last week's game was one of the best we have ever seen a Palatine team play. Antioch needs to beat Wauconda to finish second. A defeat would drop the Sequoits behind Glenbrook.

IF PALATINE and Wauconda win they will remain tied for fourth with 4-3 records. Glenbrook looks like a cinch to hand Grayslake their seventh straight setback while Ela-Vernon, already champs, should be relaxed enough to give Grant a good drubbing at Fox Lake.

Bensenville has gained lots of yardage but lost their scoring punch in recent games.

Coach Tom Meneguin has some fine backs in Gene Benhart, Allen James, and Herb Brown but lately the team blocking has not been good enough to set them free for long runs. Benhart got off an 80 yard sprint at Antioch but the touchdown did not count due to a penalty. Palatine will have an edge in the line Friday night and that should mean an edge in the game.

ROHDE, HILDEBRANDT, and Hillesheim, biggest boys in the Palatine line weighing 210, 185 and 175 are all underclassmen. Backs Alan Eck, Dave Cornwell, Ray Lorden, and Ernie Martz are all juniors. With a soph team which has been beaten only by Glenbrook and has a line as big as the varsity Palatine will be a top contender a year hence. Right now they are as good as any team in the league but the final proof depends on a win over the Bisons.

The loss of Tinker Meyer and Norm Stenzel, regular backs from the 1952 champs, in the first game of the season caused the Pirates to drop one TD decisions to Ela and Glenbrook before the newcomers started to roll.

PALATINE and Bensenville have been very evenly matched over the years in football. A victory for the Bisons Friday would salvage a good part of the prestige lost in recent trimmings by the league leaders. For Palatine it means a chance to finish in the first division with four straight victories after three defeats.

Arlington JVs End Undefeated Season

Arlington junior-varsity football team ended its season undefeated Monday afternoon at Maine just two hours, 15 minutes after it started. The 21-7 contest was the only one slated for Coach Bill Beckman and his varsity reserves.

Wayne Brumm ran five yards with the first Heights TD in the opening quarter after a 70 yard drive. Bob Ellis tallied twice in the third period for the locals. one a 30 yard dash, the other a 65 yard run. Wayne Mueller kicked all three conversions.

Only Maine touchdown came in the final segment when the young Demons passed for three first downs, then plunged across from the one yard line.

Starting lineup for the Cardinal JVs included Harrison Kennicott and Wayne Mueller at ends, Floyd Burns and Jack Johnston at tackles, Ron Dritlein and Charles Black at guards, Dave Lynk at center, Dennis Maher at quarter, Wayne Brumm and Bob Ellis at the halves, and Jim Goggin at fullback. Ellis, Goggin and Black are seniors.

Wheeling Blackhawk Cagers Host To Trotter Farm Club

Wheeling Blackhawks open their sixth basketball season Saturday, November 14, when the locals will engage the Harlem Globetrotters number one farm club, the Kansas City Stars on Arlington Heights high school's old gym floor.

Like the Globetrotters, the Stars are a great Negro traveling quintet stressing comedy and showmanship in addition to good basketball.

THE PLAYERS are from all parts of the country and are regarded as the best prospects to win places on Globetrotter teams of the future. It was from the Kansas City ranks that such stars as Marques Haynes, Sam Wheeler, and Josh Grider have moved to topflight Globetrotter assignments.

Kansas City is headed by "Duke" Cumberland, one of the all-time stars of the Globetrotters, who is serving as player-coach. Another member of Kansas City is Harry Sykes, a 6'7" giant from Maywood, Illinois. Sykes starred for two years with a crack Proviso township high school quintet, and went on to win all-conference rating with Kentucky State at Frankfort, Ky.

THE BLACKHAWKS, who in the last five years have piled up 82 victories against 41 set-backs and have experienced a losing season only once, last year (12-17), have been almost completely rebuilt in an effort to recapture the North Shore league title they won two years ago.

Handled by Gene Bell, former Oklahoma A & M star and former head cage mentor at Arlington Heights high school, the 'Hawks have the greatest array of players in their history. Rejoining the 'Hawks is Vic Lesch, who directed the team to their best season three years ago (23-7). Lesch averaged better than 16 points per game and this season will help Bell as assistant coach; Eddie Kostka and Gene Lesch, both members of the 'Hawks North Shore League championship team of two years back are also back in the fold.

MAINSTAYS from last year's squad are Hans Schmidt and George "Boom-Boom" Newman. Schmidt, last year's leading scorer and Newman, the 'Hawks leading North Shore scorer, give the locals a very effective one-two scoring punch. Newcomers to the 'Hawks are Jim Pinkstaff, holder of the North Suburban conference scoring title; Ted Warning, 6'3" center; and "Red" Meyers, who performed for the Barrington Bombers last season.

Ela-Vernon Tops Grayslake For NW Title

Ela-Vernon high school clinched their first football championship in the Northwest conference Saturday afternoon by beating Grayslake, 18-6. The Bears with a 6-0 record can win an undisputed title regardless of the outcome of their final game at Grant next Saturday night. Second place Antioch has a 4-1-1 record.

Ela had to come from behind a 6-0 first half deficit to win. Larry Laseke of Grayslake scored in the second period on a five yard run after Grayslake had advanced close to the goal on the second attempt following a recovered fumble.

IN THE THIRD quarter Ela went to work and put over the tying score in short order on successive runs of 25 yards and 12 yards by speedy Dan Gudgeon. A blocked punt set up the second score with Don Fenner going over from the two yard stripe on a series of short gains from the 32 yard line.

A long pass from Fenner to Glen Chaffin of 42 yards set up the final score in the last quarter and Don Prouty tallied from the one yard line. Chaffin also had pass catches in the second half of 17, 18, and 20 yards.

Last year Ela missed out on a tie with Palatine for the championship by being tied by Grayslake in the final game.

Palatine football reached a new high in student participation this year with six coaches directing the boys. The varsity has a 4-3 record thus far, the frosh-sophs 4-2-1. Wrestlers at Heights

First call for wrestlers at Arlington Heights high school has been issued by Coach Dick Mudge. Mudge also stated Downers Grove is the seventh league school to take up the sport, with only Glenbard failing to have a mat. At present wrestling is not considered a league sanctioned activity.

The Heights grapplers are scheduled to report Monday, November 9. Outlook is questionable with a couple of veterans certain to be below par for awhile, but 16 matches are on the card

Final Midget Grid Workout

Midget football will have its final workout Saturday morning at 9:30 in Arlington Heights, with a get-together for boys and their dads scheduled for the fieldhouse Tuesday night, November 17.

The midget program drew 135 boys this fall, with coaches Ormsbee, Beckman and Nelson directing activities. A good turnout appeared each Saturday, September through October, until last week when Halloween painting conflicted. A more extensive program is planned for next season.

BILL OSMANSKI, former Chicago Bear star fullback, will be featured speaker at the get-together November 17, with pictures of Bear games also slated. Speaking, too, will be Coach "Bus" Ormsbee telling of plans for next year, etc.

It is hoped fathers of all boys enrolled will appear for this final meeting of the year.

The boys played an intra-squad game Saturday on the varsity field at the high school

Palatine Edges Wauconda To Go Into First Division

Palatine moved into the first division Friday night as they nosed out a strong Wauconda team 7-6 in one of the hardest played football games of the season. The Pirates played their best game and had a decided edge on the visitors in ground gaining particularly on the ground.

Palatine had 14 first downs to Wauconda's seven but the Bulldogs clicked on three long passes. One of them in the second quarter was good for a 32 yard touchdown with Gene Jaskot receiving from Dennis Punches.

PALATINE came back with a vicious ground attack in the third quarter which could not be denied a score. After a 60 yard drive in 13 plays finally bogged down on the Wauconda 10 the Pirates held and again took the ball on the Wauconda 41. Lorden made 14 and then Cornwell sped through the line for 17. After Cornwell and Lorden each made a yard Coach Charley Feutz sent in lanky Dave Nesset at end with instructions for a pass play. Ray Lorden tossed 10 yards to Nesset for the touchdown.

Dave Cornwell booted the winning extra point. Wauconda never threatened but once in the second half and then Doug Hildebrant recovered a Bulldog fumble after they had moved to the Palatine 26.

In the first half Wauconda drove to the Palatine 39 and again marched to the Pirate three yard stripe but the line held. Sparked by a 28 yard sprint by Dave Cornwell Palatine went down to the Wauconda 27 but had to give up the ball.

WHEN WAUCONDA took over, Fishback plunged to the Wauconda 34 and then a 34 yard pass to Tom Nolan followed by a 32 yard toss to Gene Jaskot quickly scored a touchdown just a minute before the end of the half.

Palatine's line stood out on defense and Ernie Martz and Dave Cornwell, juniors, came into their own as ball carriers. Martz gained a net of 53 yards in 10 tries and Cornwell, converted from an end into a fullback, ripped off 72 yards in 10 trips. Ray Lorden, quarterback, carried 14 times for 48 yards. For Wauconda, Don Smith was the top ball toter with a new of 44 yards in 10 tries. Wauconda got only 61 yards net on the ground to Palatine's 197 but piled up 94 yards to the Pirates' 16 on passes.

Antioch Dumps Bensenville, 32-0

Bensenville's Gene Benhart intercepted a pass in the opening minutes of the game with Antioch last Saturday and returned it 90 yards for a T.D. Unfortunately, it was called back to the Bensenville 34 for clipping. The Bisons failed to gain and punted, never scoring thereafter in a 32-0 loss at Antioch Saturday.

Quarterback Terry fired a pass to Voss, who scored for Antioch. McGreal kicked the extra point, 7-0. Gallagher plunged over from the 6 for the first of his three touchdowns for the day. The attempt for the extra point failed.

ANTIOCH recovered a fumble on the 15. Three running plays later Gallagher was over, going five yards on the last play.

The third quarter saw Voss intercept a Bensenville pass on the Bison's 33. After a march downfield Blake went 13 for pay dirt. The extra point failed again, making it 25-0.

Brownlee intercepted his second pass of the night in the last period of play on the Bensenville 47. Black then made a good gain and Gallagher finished the march with a 26 yard sprint. Miller kicked point to finish 32-0.

FUMBLES AND interceptions hurt Bensenville. Penalties were strong for both teams.

James of Bensenville was unable to travel to Antioch and it is doubtful if he will be able to play this week. The fourth quarter also saw Benhart injured but he will play in Friday's tussle against Palatine.

Glenbrook Whips Grant

Glenbrook bounced back from last week's defeat at the hands of Antioch to whip Grant, 26-12. The Spartans took a 14-0 lead in the first half and after Grant scored twice in the third quarter, came back for two more touchdowns.

It was Glenbrook's fourth win in six conference games. A 20 yard pass to Ken Shulteis by Fred Radloff gave Glenbrook their first touchdown and Bob Boyd converted. In the second quarter Dave Corso's 24 yard end run scored again and Boyd again made good on a place kick.

BOB KLAUS, Grant quarterback snared a pass for a 34 yard scoring play early in the third period and shortly thereafter picked up a Spartan fumble and ran 32 yards for another touchdown.

In the last quarter Butch Swazen, Glenbrook end, picked up a Grant fumble and raced 40 yards to ice away the game. Later Bob Boyd circled Grant's left end for a 20 yard touchdown run. Glenbrook frosh-sophs remained undefeated with a 26-6 victory.

Heights Cross Country Team Trips Hinsdale

Arlington's cross country team gained the minimum against Hinsdale last week when Coach Attis' thinclads copped the first six places for a 15-58 victory. This gave the locals a 6-2 record to date with only Maine Friday and the conference meet Tuesday at Glenbard still on the docket.

John Sheppard copped his third first in a row against Hinsdale, setting a new Heights course record of 8:20. Old mark was 8:24 made by Weik of Leyden, who finished sixth in district competition at Evanston Saturday.

Next five Heights boys finishing included Dave Ryden, Bob Rangine, Don Drever, Ray Hornbostel and Randy Thomas. Gaining points for Hinsdale were Davies 6th, Sparks 9th, Menzies 13th, Baillie 14th and Thomas 15th.

Heights Frosh Tied, Then Lose In Final Tilts

Arlington's freshman football squad finished its season Monday with a 25-0 loss to Hinsdale, after a 19-all tie at Palatine the previous Thursday. Everyone on the squad was used by Coach Curtis Larsen in both games.

Hinsdale ran the opening kickoff 90 yards for the initial touchdown Monday at Arlington, then slowed to a 6-0 standstill at the half. An intercepted pass the third quarter set up a series of plays that covered 30 yards for the second score.

A good 50 yard march, also in the third period, with a pass accounting for Hinsdale's fourth TD. A two yard quarterback sneak after a 40 yard series of plays accounted for the other six-pointer.

John Wille showed best offensively for Heights. Blackboard workouts continued this week for Coach Curtis Larsen's charges, with suits slated to be put away the end of this week.

AT PALATINE Arlington grabbed an early lead, stretched it to 19-0, then saw Palatine make a belated bid with two long runs and a 55 yard pass play to tie the score.

Ed Meinken ran 30 yards on a reverse in the opening quarter to tally first for Arlington, with Dan Vittum's conversion attempt wide. Haase dashed seven yards inside tackle for another tally in the same period with Vittum making the PAT this time.

Dick Fischer counted in the third frame on a five yard plunge off tackle, with a Morand-Vittum pass for the point after going incomplete.

FOR PALATINE in the third quarter Fred Swanson returned a punt 60 yards for a TD. Mike Lynch then scored on a 55 yard pass play through the center.

In the final period it was Swanson again, this time for 50 yards with just 80 seconds left. He ran the extra point, too, tying the game.

Outstanding in this game for Coach Larsen's eleven was Jim Hoffman at defensive guard.

Glenbrook Frosh-Sophs Defeat Grant, 26-0

by BOB BLODEN

Dominating the conference, the frosh-sophs of Glenbrook, racked up a 26 to 0 shutout over Grant Saturday.

The Junior Spartans continued on the victory path when Duane Harms scored on the first play from scrimmage, quarterback sneak that went over 50 yards. Pete Stevens scored again for the Spartans before the half ended making the score, 12 to 0, although they held the ball for only 6 plays.

In the second half Jack Stodder and Gordon Lind drove across with 12 more points. Pete Stevens made the conversions.

Statistics Worm Turns As Arlington Beats Hinsdale

The law of averages caught up with Arlington Friday night with a happy result—13-12 victory over league leading Hinsdale that sent fans home contented over a much improved season. The local frosh-sophs lost 26-0.

In game after game this year Arlington has won on statistics, but not on the scoreboard. They've rushed almost at will, but have not been able to cope with intercepted passes and runbacks that charged losses against Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's charges.

FRIDAY NIGHT, however, the breaks went the other way, and Heights pulled the game out of the fire with just seconds remaining. Two blocked punts accounted for the victory as much as anything, though it was a sustained 67 yard drive against time that proved the climax.

The Cards had taken over on their own 33 with about four minutes to go. They moved down the field on solid gains, plus a timely penalty, with Dick Winterbauer going the final two yards with just 15 seconds left.

BLOCKED PUNTS helped. Wayne Mueller blocked a Hinsdale punt by George Boss in the first quarter with Wayne Brumm recovering on the visitors' 22. The locals made the distance in a half dozen plays, Winterbauer doing the honors. Don Hoth made the extra point.

Hinsdale marched 70 yards as time was running low in the first half, the Red Devils scoring with seconds to go. Boss missed the extra point attempt.

At the end of the third quarter Hinsdale tallied again, George Oles going across from the three. It was then that Ken Lemke blocked the extra point attempt, making the tally 12-7, and ripe for Arlington's game-thrilling TD.

HINSDALE LED statistically, outrushing the Cardinals 207-158. In first downs it was 14-9 with just three passes attempted by each team. Straight football was the order of the dad's night game. Fathers of football players were seated along the field, and wore the same numbers as their sons.

The Frosh-soph encounter was all Hinsdale. Jack Rezny tallied in the first and third quarters, the former being an 85 yard jaunt. Tom Cortesi did his part for Hinsdale by intercepting two passes at opportune times, and scored once. He also booted two points after.

Arlington's offense bogged down to just 50 yards. Passing showed six completed in 22 attempts for 77 yards.

Barrington Clinches North Suburban Title

Barrington clinched the North Suburban conference football title Friday afternoon by whipping hitherto unbeaten Lake Forest 25-6. The Bronchos coached by Tom Fredrick are unbeaten in six straight games and have only winless Woodstock between them an a perfect season.

Barrington scored 19 points in the second period to win the game. Roy DeWitz who set a new touchdown passing record last week with 13 scoring aerials for the season increased the record to 15 with two more scoring pitches. The Bronchos broke the league scoring record of 162 set by Lake Forest in 1951 by raising their total in six games to 170 and still one game to go. The eight straight league victories over two seasons ties a conference record.

Last year Barrington took second in football in their first year in the North Suburban, won first in varsity basketball and tied for first in junior varsity basketball.

Hunting Season

The fact that the hunting season is just around the corner, especially for upland game birds, brings to mind a few thoughts and comments on the subject of what constitutes good manners on the part of a guest who has been invited to go hunting with a friend and his dog.

Respect the dog's right to be handled solely by his owner, and don't offer advice, or call or whistle to the dog. Remember, there is a close relationship between a dog and his owner, and it is the owner to whom the dog will look for guidance. Let the master take the initative in directing his dog. If it is a pointing dog, have your friend tell you where to go to take the shot. If a bird is down, stand quietly and let the owner direct the retrieve. Never try to call the dog to you when he brings in the game and don't reach for it if he passes you. You may have made a particularly good and difficult shot but to the dog you are a perfect stranger and he will naturally retrieve to his owner.

Even if the dog doesn't work as well as expected, let his owner be the only one to criticize. Refrain from telling your friend stories about the wonderful dogs that you have hunted over before, inferring that his dog isn't as good. Show by your conduct that you appreciate the opportunity to hunt with him and his dog and you'll be invited again.

Above all, remember that you are hunting over a dog, therefore, never shoot unless you are sure the dog is nowhere in the line of fire. Sounds foolish to offer such advice, but you would be surprised how many dogs are injured each year by hunters who are not too careful on how they shoot. Far better the loss of a bird or a rabbit than taking a chance on the loss of a dog—and a good friend.

Westside Show

That obedience trial to be held this coming Sunday, November 8, 1953, at Cicero Stadium, 1909 S. 52nd ave., Cicero, has brought out one of the largest entries of dogs ever to be entered in such an event outside of the Chicago area, 237 to be exact.

There was a limit of 65 dogs put on the Novice A class, however, the other classes had no limit on the number of entries with the result that for example the Utility class has something like 29 dogs entered. Does not sound like very many, but when you consider that a judge will average only 6 dogs per hour in this class it will give you a good idea of how long it takes for just this class—which is scheduled to start at 1 p.m.

The trials will start at 9 a.m. and with the entry the size that it is the affair will probably run long after the advertised closing hour of 6 p.m.

Books on Dogs

From time to time your editor is asked about some good books on the subject of the care, feeding, and training of dogs.

There are really quite a number of good ones on the subject and to try to suggest just one as THE book would be well nigh impossible. If you have some particular problem in mind and think that perhaps some book might be of help, a short letter to the editor will bring an answer in the form of a few comments and also the names of some books which might cover the issue.

Bears Lonesome For Packers In Cellar

Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers meet next Sunday at Wrigley Field in the seventieth game of their long series. Kickoff time is 1:05 p.m.

Green Bay will be out for revenge. The Bears handed the Packers a 17 to 13 defeat in Green Bay five weeks ago, and Gene Ronzani expects to have his squad at peak strength Sunday. Bill Howton, the Packers' great pass receiving end, is back in harness, while Ronzani's two quarterbacks, Tobin Rote and Babe Parilli have started to click with their aerials.

Howton and Bob Mann are two of the best targets in the National football league. Rote and Parilli can be expected to cut loose against the Bears with a passing attack which had been tabbed at the season's start as the most dangerous in the loop. Beating the Bears would satisfy many Packer fans in spite of Green Bay's record to date.

THE BEARS boast a big edge in the 33 year old series. They have won 40 games, while losing 24. There have been 5 ties. The Bears have scored a total of 1,099 points, as to 826 for the Packers. Records of the series show that the Bears have won 10 out of the last 12 games with Green Bay, and that the Packers have only won one game at Wrigley Field since 1941. They turned the trick a year ago, following the Bears' return from San Francisco, where they had upset the Forty-Niners.

Except for the past few seasons, the Bear-Green Bay series usually has decided the western division championship. The two clubs have won a total of 13 world championships, and eighteen western titles.

Hits Pay Dirt

Dick Winterbauer, alternating at fullback and quarter this year for Arlington Heights, scored both TDs for the Cardinals against Hinsdale Friday night after series of plays brought the ball within distance of pay dirt. Both TDs were two yard plunges.

Derrell Palmer Finds Right Doctor After Tearing Hip Muscles

Back in 1938, two doctors took a look at Derrell Palmer's torn hip muscles and told him to give up football, reports the all-sports section of The Sporting News.

Right now he's too busy working at his old stand as the Cleveland Browns' defensive left tackle. In his eighth season as a pro, the cool and competent Texan can be counted on as a bulwark of the Browns' line.

When the doctors told him to quit in 1938 after he was injured in a high school game in Albany, Texas, it didn't slow Palmer up for long. He went looking for a doctor who would see things his way. When he found one and got his okay, he enrolled at Texas Christian and starred for three years. After that came two seasons of service football as a Marine on the Hawaiian Islands and then a job in the pro ranks.

Itasca Man on Pensacola Eleven at Great Lakes

Howard Heinrich, who played football at Glenbard high school and with the Elmhurst Travelers, will be playing at Great Lakes Saturday, November 7, with the Pensacola eleven. Howard joined the navy in 1952.

Howard has three brothers, one of them, Bob, who is now playing on the Bensenville high school team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Heinrich of Itasca.

Illini Without Wallace For Michigan Tilt

Illinois and Michigan renew their traditional football rivalry at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Memorial Stadium as the Illini seek their fourth straight Big Ten victory of 1953 and the same number of consecutive victories over the Wolverines.

A capacity crowd of 71,119 will jam the Illini Stadium to watch Michigan pit its offense, described by Scout Leo Johnson as the "trickiest in current college football" against the running power of Coach Ray Eliot's squad which lies primarily in the strong legs of sophomore halfbacks J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates.

Illinois notched its third straight conference victory last week with a convincing 21-0 triumph over Purdue and Caroline continued at a rushing pace which could carry him to the Big Ten record for a season.

J. C.'s tremendous stride and slashing drives already have brought him a new modern Illinois mark of 891 yards in six games, erasing the former record of 829 yards gained by Claude "Buddy" Young in the season of 1944.

Bates continues to set a torrid scoring pace, having nine touchdowns for the season and needs but four more to tie the all-time mark of 13 held jointly by Young, Johnny Karras and Harold "Red" Grange.

THE ILLINI victory over Purdue was not achieved without cost, as fullback Stan Wallace, a standout on both offense and defense, suffered recurrence of a knee injury and will be lost for the Wolverine engagement. His replacement will be Kenny Miller, recently recovered from an ankle injury. Bates also reinjured a tender side and may not be able to indulge in contact work this week although he should be able to play Saturday.

Coach Eliot's problems at guard remained acute as team physicians gave a questionable status to whether either John Bauer or Wally Vernasco will be ready for duty. Jack Chamblin, number two center will continue as a double duty performer, working either at the pivot spot or at right guard.

Not since 1949 has Michigan been able to defeat the Illini, who won 7-0 in both 1950 and 1951 in games played in snowstorms, then staged the upset of 1952 with a 22-13 triumph at Ann Arbor.

Helps Mates Score

Stan Hauseman, 1205 Western ave., Northbrook, carried the ball twice for a gain of 9 yards as he and his teammates scored a 27-7 victory over Ball State (Ind.) college at Ames field in Michigan City, Ind., to keep alive Valparaiso University's chances for an Indiana collegiate conference co-championship.

Ball State took a temporary lead in the first quarter on a touchdown and extra point kick, but Valpo came back with two scores in the second quarter and one each in the third and fourth periods.

Arlington Harriers Third in District

Arlington's harriers finished a strong third in district competition at Evanston Saturday. Taking first was Evanston with John Hitt and Louis Kujawinski finishing one-two. Hitt set a new mark for the event.

With Evanston notching 42 points, Proviso tallied 65. The Cardinals finished with 123. Leyden had 130 for fourth spot, with Palatine ninth of eleven schools.

Don Drever finished 14th for Arlington, with John Sheppard ranking 15th. Dave Ryden finished 17th, Rob Rankine 21st, Ray Hornbostel 56th. Randy Thomas, running 20th, had to drop out after half of the race, as did Jim Fontaine.

District points:

Evanston	42	Oak Park	171
Proviso	65	Elgin	180
Arlington	123	Palatine	214
Leyden	130	Niles	221
Maine	150	Waukegan	237

Hard Times Party to Benefit Little League

Plans for the first annual Prospect Heights Little League hard times party and dance are well under way. The date is November 21, and the fun begins at 8:30 p.m. The event will be held in the three new stores between the present drug store and the fire station.

Tickets are now on sale at fifty cents and each home will be contacted by committee members and volunteer workers.

It is hoped that everyone will come out to this event as the committee guarantees everyone a good time. As all the old Prospect Heights residents will testify, remembering the hard times parties years back, "There's just nothing like it!"

There will be dancing to Johnny Mueller's orchestra and games and refreshments.

All proceeds will go to the Prospect Heights Little League baseball program to cover expenses for uniforms and equipment for the coming year. The customer, then, is offered both a good time and opportunity to help the Little League program for 1954.

Turkey Run Deadline November 23

Entries in the 19th annual Thanksgiving day 5,000 meter run will be accepted until Monday, November 23, John M. Walsh, C. Y. O. athletic director announced. The race is open to all amateur runners whether representing colleges, high schools, clubs or competing unattached.

Wheaton college crack harriers have a seven year hold on the traditional turkey and team trophy. The record time for the meet was set by George Lynch running unattached in 15 minutes and 44 seconds.

Agriculture Secretary Heaps Praise On 4-Hers

Secretary of agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has joined with other national agricultural leaders and state and county people to pay tribute to the nation's 4-H club members on national 4-H achievement day November 14.

His message came just before Cook county's 4-H achievement day program, Thursday, November 14, 7:30 p.m. at Arlington Heights high school gym, according to farm adviser Carl F. Mees.

Benson's message to young rural leaders reads as follows:

"Congratulations to the more than two million 4-H club members on National 4-H achievement day, November 14. We in the Department of Agriculture commend you club members for working so earnestly on your 4-H club projects in farming, homemaking, and leadership. They all add up to good citizenship. Especially important are the activities focused towards your theme of 'Working Together for World Understanding.'

"Yours is a program of practical self-help education in applying scientific research results. In planning stronger research and education programs for the betterment of American agriculture and the nation, we must not overlook increased emphasis on helping boys and girls. We must give you an opportunity to acquire an early understanding of scientific methods and develop other qualities that will enable you to make your maximum contribution to the nation's welfare.

"I have confidence in the future when, increasingly, rural leaders can be drawn from the ranks of young folks experienced in scientific farming and homemaking, taking responsibility and working together.

"I join you in thanking your parents, your leaders, your Extension agents and the people of your communities who have lent needed encouragement and advice. I wish every community could have a good 4-H club.

"May God bless the 4-H club program of this great country. May it continue to train young men and women for the future, to take care of themselves, make their communities better, and build real homes of character and spirituality, so vital to our country and world peace."

Frowns Upon 2-Price System On Farm Goods

A new farm program based on a two-price system might have worked during the 20's, but involves too many problems to be workable today, Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois agricultural association, says.

Shuman points out that the two-price system, with a subsidy or lower price for the portion of a crop that is exported, might result in serious friction with our allies.

"A SIMPLE FACT, often overlooked, is that foreign nations do not want to become a dumping place for our surplus production," Shuman writes. Almost all nations depend more upon their own farmers for food than upon imports.

"Thus, they will protect their own agriculture from our bargain pricing by the application of quotas and embargoes. Several of our best friends, such as Canada and Australia, produce and sell wheat at the world price," the IAA president says.

"A sure way to lose friends and make enemies would be to undermine the world market by subsidizing export dumping."

SHUMAN points out that another very difficult problem in connection with any two-price plan is the method of financing. "Taxpayers would not long permit direct subsidy from the federal treasury. The only other means of paying the cost would be to levy a per bushel tax on wheat growers. This tax would be very unpopular and difficult to collect," Shuman claims.

Discussing proposals to subsidize wheat used in livestock feeding, Shuman says that "Congressmen from the western wheat areas do not want a single acre of their marginal production eliminated, but are perfectly willing to destroy the market for Illinois corn.

"Corn can compete with wheat as a feed in a free market. We should oppose to the limit any two or multiple-price plan that is based on subsidizing wheat feeding in competition with corn," Shuman concludes.

Farmers Sight Colder Weather . . .
Wonder About Heating Watering Tank

AUTOMATIC WATERER . . . finds cattle and hogs sharing alike on this Iowa farm.

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

It doesn't take a weather prophet to know when winter is approaching up north. The calendar will do. Even in some areas of the sunny south there may be occasional temperature let-downs ahead in the near future. Stock farmers know the signs well and begin pondering over the problem of "turning a little heat" on the drinking troughs.

There are several good stock tank heaters on the market, but the latest to appear answers many of the difficulties which a number of older models don't solve. This newest model is a "packaged unit" with electric heating elements built into the bottom of a heavy gauge sheet steel jacket. The inside of the tank is sprayed with moisture-proof sealing material to guard against heat loss.

A special bronze corrosion-proof float valve handles all degrees of water pressure. Plumbing in the unit is ready to operate at the time of installation. Connections must be made only to the water supply line and the electrical outlet. The thermostat can be set in the fall for the desired temperature and need not be turned off until spring. During warm months the unit functions as a regular automatic stock waterer, providing stock with all the water required to fatten satisfactorily or to maintain milk production levels.

For stock men who "run" hogs and steers together, the new unit offers a combination watering arrangement with the cattle trough at the top and one or two hog troughs at the bottom. The troughs are of heavy cast iron and each is served by a separate heating unit, ranging in size from 325 watts for hog troughs to 750 for the cattle trough.

The use of automatic waterers at several different locations on the farmstead—in or outside of buildings—is growing on stock and dairy farms. Unlike open stock tanks, waterers prevent stock from gorging on too much water and encourage them to drink smaller amounts at frequent intervals. Valves control the amount of water available and keep it clean. Less water, drunk often, is said to aid digestion and to help balance stock rations.

Farm Acreage and Animals Giving Way To Suburban Areas

Acreage of Cook county farms planted in major crops has decreased 10 per cent in five years, while the numbers of four out of five farm animals have dropped from 14 to 40 per cent. This was disclosed this week by the Illinois cooperative crop reporting service of the U.S. and Illinois departments of agriculture.

Acreages of eight major crops on January 1, 1950, in Cook county totaled 141,800 compared to 159,100 five years earlier. Decreases were: Corn, 66,200 to 57,600; hay, 34,400 to 28,600; soybeans for beans, 12,100 to 9,100; oats, 43,100 to 39,900, and spring wheat, 900 to 600. Increases were shown by winter wheat, 1700 to 4,300; barley, 500 to 1,400, and rye, 200 to 300 acres.

Of the animals, horses and mules showed the largest drop, from 4,500 to 2,700, or 40 per cent. This was in line with the state-wide decrease from 388,000 to 222,000.

Milk cows dropped 28 per cent, down 18,300 to 13,200, while cattle of all kinds dropped 14 per cent, from 26,800 to 23,000. Hogs were down 24 per cent, from 54,000 to 40,800 and chickens 23 per cent, from 316,600 to 242,600. These drops were considerably higher than the state average.

4-H Girl Wins Trip For Improvement Work

Dorothy Dittrich, Des Plaines T.N.T club, county 4-H Club member has received an outstanding honor. She is one of twenty 4-H club members from fifteen Illinois counties selected to attend the five-year room plan achievement tour November 1-2 in Chicago.

Dorothy has been invited to attend because of her outstanding work in room improvement. She enrolled in the five-year project in 1953 and since that time has planned and completed renovating her room. This included patching and decorating walls, refinishing floors and woodwork, purchasing bedroom set and floor covering, selecting and making dressing table skirt, drapes and bedspread.

Farmers Give Opinions On National Policies

More than 100 farm leaders from 19 northern Illinois counties reported results of two months of intensive sampling of farm bureau membership opinion at the first five area meetings conducted throughout the state by the Illinois

Otto Steffey, vice president of the state-wide Farm Bureau organization and chairman of the meeting, explained the purpose of this grass roots poll is to help determine what resolutions shall be placed before the voting delegates at the IAA's annual meeting in Chicago November 16-19.

WHILE REPORTS of the 19 counties are advisory, they will help the tentative resolutions committee of the IAA write its final state-wide report November 4, Steffey told the farmers gathered in the DeKalb county farm bureau building.

County policy development chairmen reported on a series of township and county meetings, summarizing the opinion of farmers on a wide variety of questions.

Price supports, foreign trade, and the federal budget occupied a primary spot in almost all of the county reports. Such problems as state legislative reapportionment, local taxation, social security for farmers, and agricultural research also came in for lots of discussion.

CHARLES REED, of Emmerson, speaking for Whiteside County expressed what seemed to be the majority opinion on price supports. "In view of the fact that farmers must have some kind of support for their products, and still maintain as closely as possible a free enterprise system, we recommend a flexible price support system—between 75 and 90 per cent of parity on the basic commodities."

Most of the farmer feeling followed this pro-flexible line, although minority views were expressed for all the way from no supports to 100 per cent of parity.

Increased foreign trade was another almost-unanimous opinion. Gerald Hageman, Wheaton, who gave the DuPage county report, said "a better two-way trade system might go a long way toward curing our surplus problems."

* * *

"THE FEDERAL budget should be balanced," Everett Phelps, Rockton, said on behalf of the Winnebago County Farm Bureau members. "Every attempt should be made to accomplish this first by increasing efficiency in all government departments. This could be supported with a decrease in appropriations for all government departments, including the department of agriculture."

This opinion was almost unanimously reported by other counties at the meeting.

"The government should furnish more technical assistance in conservation and less subsidy payments for carrying out conservation practices." That was the thought from Stephenson county as expressed by Glen Ackerman, Ridott.

R. Kenneth Riskedel, Leland, said "Some sincere appeals for increased aid to education and research were made at our meetings in LaSalle County."

Loses $90, Finds Same

Johnny Davis of Deerpath rd., Barrington was a grateful young man when he recovered $90 he had lost.

He discovered $90 tucked in the end of his wallet was missing and remembered he had been shopping in the village. He backtracked to the business places he visited.

When he got to Conrad's Varieties—there was the $90 waiting to be claimed.

Use Complete Silage For Fat Cattle

A complete legume-grass silage ration for fattening cattle may be practical for many Illinois feeders. Farmers learned about this time and labor saving method of feeding at last week's 25th annual cattle feeders' meeting at the University of Illinois.

Medium-fleshy, 918 pound, two year old steers were used in the experiment. They were fed only legume-grass silage containing an extra-heavy application of ground shelled corn as a preservative. Twenty pounds of ground shelled corn were added to each 80 pounds of fresh-cut green material at silo-filling time.

THE ADDED CORN served as a preservative, absorbs excess moisture in the fresh forage and provided a source of energy which it was hoped would balance the high-protein legume-grass forage and make it suitable for fattening heavy steers when fed as the complete ration.

During the 51-day feeding period, the lot of steers made an average daily gain of 2.72 pounds each. Cost per hundred weight of gain was $17.41, and each steer consumed 8.31 bushels of corn. When slaughtered, the steer carcasses graded low choice.

IT WAS POINTED out that the size and age of the steers used in the test had much to do with the small amount of corn needed to produce choice carcasses. Yearlings or calves would not be expected to do this well, but it would be only a matter of more time and silage before they would be ready for market.

Farmers who use this system of feeding were advised to make preparations when filling the silo. It is best to start with a high level of preservative at the rear end of the stack or trench silo or at the bottom of the upright silo and decrease the amount as silomaking progresses.

Give Report On Cattle Feeders Day At Illinois

Farmers attending the 25th annual cattle feeders' meeting at the University of Illinois learned that cattle can be fattened on a ration that doesn't contain protein supplement.

In one test a ration composed of a special strain of high-protein corn and high-protein corn silage was compared with a ration of five parts of ordinary corn and one part of 44 per cent soybean oil meal plus regular corn silage. Both rations gave about the same results.

TWO LOTS OF ten yearling steers were used in the experiment. Steers in both lots gained at about the same rate, and feed costs per hundred weight gain were similar. The total feed cost per head was $4.96 higher for the regular corn lot than for the high-protein lot when corn was priced the same per bushel.

In addition, the general appearance of the high-protein-fed cattle was better than that of cattle fed regular corn, corn silage and soybean oil meal. They showed better finish and were more uniform in weight and condition. The differences were reflected in the selling prices, as the high-protein fed cattle sold for $23.00 while the others brought $22.75.

RESEARCH workers in charge of the test pointed out that while the feeding trial shows the value of high-protein corn, commercial supplies of high-protein varieties are limited.

Now Is No Time to Sell Your Beef Cow Herd, Says Expert

Now is no time to sell your beef cow herd. G. R. Carlise, extension livestock specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says cows will continue to be a reasonable safe investment and will pay a fair return for the roughage they eat.

Many Illinois beef cow herd owners have been faced with the question of whether or not to sell their herds after the recent beef price slump. Carlisle says the answer to that qustion can be found in another question.

That is whether your farm plan needs a beef cow herd year after year to provide a market for roughage that would otherwise not be used. If you answer "yes" to this question, Carlisle advises staying in the business.

On the other hand, if your answer is "no," Carlisle believes that you shouldn't have had a beef herd in the first place, and the sooner you sell, the better.

A beef cow herd is an especially poor business for the "in-and-outer," as it takes several years to build and is a long-time investment.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

More Convenient Storage

MASONITE "Peg-Board" panels and metal hangers, which take the headache out of home storage, may be obtained now from most building material dealers. This happy combination of holes and hangers gives homemakers a versatile method of hanging a variety of things ranging from kitchen utensils to lawnmowers.

As illustrated, these strong, splinter-free panels have scores of perforations. Into them are slipped self-locking hangers and fixtures which hold the items to be stored. Of course, the hangers can be moved to whatever spot desired on the "Peg-Board" panel.

The panels, which come in standard sizes from two feet by three feet to four feet by eight, may be attached to an existing wall or directly to studs in new construction. The large panels may easily be cut with a cross-cut saw into the sizes wanted.

Here are a few of the uses for "Peg-Board" panels in the home—in the kitchen for hanging utensils, in the workshop for tools, in the utility closet for brooms, mops and dustpans, in the garage for garden equipment, in the sewing room for spools and scissors, in closets for hats, neckties and shoes, in the bedroom for a useful and decorative bed headboard, in a child's room for a wall, in the living quarters as a decorative divider.

See Higher Prices For Winter Beef

Consumers can expect higher prices in late winter and early spring when they ask for the better grades of finished beef, reports H. M. Conway, director of research in the November issue of National Live Stock Producer.

Falling cattle prices the past 18 months resulted from an oversupply of beef, and after suffering heavy losses many feedlot operators hesitated to refill their feedlots. As a result, the supply of finished beef may fall somewhat below the demand which may be expected with present levels of employment and production income.

WITH CURRENT slaughter of beef running the highest since 1947, when a similar liquidation of breeding herds and a close marketing of finished cattle occurred, U.S. consumers are expected to eat a record 74 to 76 pounds of beef per person. This increased consumption, together with the increasing population, can use the production from additional breeding herds and will aid in taking up the slack for increasing cattle numbers.

Since the present problem in beef is largely one of supply, it is expected to follow a similar pattern that pork production went through the past two years, says Conway. The oversupply of hogs resulted in heavy marketings at low prices, until hog numbers were reduced below normal needs.

THIS SHORT supply was soon reflected by increased prices for both live hogs and retail pork cuts until the law of supply and demand at increased prices slowed the purchase of pork to fit the amount available.

Give Lawns Plenty Of Water

There's a secret to watering a parched lawn. Don't water it lightly and feel that all is well just because the grass turns green.

Harleigh Kemmerer, University of Illinois landscaping specialist, says light watering causes the grass roots to grow close to the surface. Next summer, when the weather gets hot and dry, the shallow-rooted grass will suffer.

It's better not to water a lawn at all than to water it lightly. Soak the ground to a depth of about six inches, and it will do some good.

Lawns are not in such bad shape as they look, Kemmerer says. The good grass is not dead, and if we get rain it will green up. The bare spots that show up are the places you need new grass.

If you loosen the dirt in these spots, seed some grass and keep it watered, it will be the same as the rest of the lawn by next summer.

Name Carl Mees to Urban Planning Group

Carl F. Mees, Cook county farm adviser, was recently named vice chairman of the urban planning committee at the annual convention of the national association of county agricultural agents held at Philadelphia.

Mr. Mees works in one of the largest urban counties in the United States and has gained quite a reputation among his fellow workers for the type of assistance offered in an area of this type.

In addition to urban problems he works mostly with the rural people in reporting the latest facts and research findings of the college of agriculture, University of Illinois and other agricultural Colleges.

Contrary to what most people think, Cook county has a total of more than 3,000 farms and has two of the largest farm organizations in the United States, namely the Cook county farm bureau and the Cook county truck gardener's and farmers association.

Christmas Seals in The Mail November 16

The 47th annual Christmas seal sale will be launched in Chicago and Cook county November 16, the tuberculosis institute announced. Over a million Christmas seal letters will go out to Chicago and suburban homes as part of the institute's program to stamp out TB in the Chicago area. Seals are sent in sheets of 100, selling for a dollar a sheet.

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Come and see me sometime." Say, "Come to see me."

Do not say, "We intend to stop for a few days in New York." Say, "We expect to remain for a few days in New York."

Do not say, "We must first see the manager before we do it." Omit "first."

Do not say, "He hasn't worked any for three weeks." Omit "any."

Do not confuse "formerly" (in time past) with "formally" (in a conventional manner).

Say, "He pleaded guilty," not "He pled guilty."

Either "insanitary" or "unsanitary" is correct. However, "insanitary" is perhaps more frequently used.

Do not say, "He seems to have no capacity as a machinist." Say, "no ability as a machinist."

Do not say, "You ought to of attended the party." Say, "You ought to have (or, should have) attended."

Do not say, "The ship sunk." Say, "sank."

"Poorly," in the sense of "not in good health," is an unacceptable provincialism; as, "She is feeling poorly today."

Do not say, "The man is void in tact." Say, "void of tact."

Words Often Mispronounced

Profile. Pronounce second syllable as file, not as feel, sometimes heard.

Potentate. Pronounce po-ten-tat, o as in no, e as in ten, a as in ate, accent first syllable.

Microscopic. Pronounce third syllable as skopp not as skope, accent third syllable.

Adonis. Pronounce a-do-nis, a as in ask unstressed, o as in no, accent second syllable.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Amnesty; political pardon; overlooking. "The alleged war profiteer was granted amnesty by the government."

Category; classification; division. "Libraries come under the category of public institutions."

Decrepitude; state of being broken down with age. "The building is in a state of decrepitude."

Implicate; to bring into connection with; to involve. "The evidence seems to implicate quite a number of persons."

Stimulate; to animate to action by some motive or by persuasion; to spur on. "We must do something to stimulate interest."

Epitomize; to abridge; summarize. (Accent follows the t). "These things have been epitomized into a formula for our convenience."

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Criterion; a rule or test by which anything is tried in forming a correct judgment respecting it. (Pronounce first syllable as cry, e as in me, accent second syllable). "We cannot accept his words as a criterion of that man's character."

Dignitary; one holding a position of dignity, especially an ecclesiastical dignity. "The dignitaries of the church opposed the idea."

Simulate; to assume the appearance of, without reality. "He attempted to simulate illness, so that he might be excused from work."

Inexorable; not to be moved by entreaty. (Accent second syllable). "It was the inexorable voice of necessity."

Lecture on Iceland

Saturday afternoon, November 7. 2:30 p.m. the free illustrated lecture at Chicago Natural History museum will be "Iceland, Capri of the North."

LAW on the FARM

In 1872 the Illinois legislature provided that every livestock owner in the state could have one earmark and one brand recorded with the county clerk of the county in which his livestock is situated. The fee for recording is 15 cents. In case of a dispute between owners over any brand or earmark, the registry book of the county clerk may be used as evidence—but it is not conclusive.

The law also authorizes any neighbor to certify as to branding or rebranding when animals are purchased from another. Such a certificate may also be used as evidence, but it is not conclusive.

TO SUPPORT this law, the criminal code provides that persons who brand or mark or alter or deface a brand, or mark with intent to steal or prevent identification by the true owner, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years (if the value is $15 or more) or confined in the county jail not exceeding one year, or fined not exceeding $1,000, or both (if the value is less than $15). This provision in the criminal code also applies to poultry marks and brands.

The law on poultry brands provides that an identification mark permanently imprinted on the body of the fowl may be registered with the State Department of Agriculture for a fee of $1.00.

* * *

THE LIVESTOCK brand law would be more effective if registration were required with the State Department of Agriculture. Under the present law there is nothing to prevent identical brands from being recorded in different counties by the same owner or by different owners. This materially lessens the value of the brand as evidence of ownership.

The laws referred to are in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 88, Sections 1-4; Chapter 8, Section 130; and Chapter 38, Section 446.

Local DHIA Herds in State's Ten Highest

Cook county had two of the state's 10 highest producing herds in dairy herd improvement test for September, reports farm adviser Carl F. Mees.

Oak Hollow Farm, Roselle, whose herd of 17 pure bred Guernseys averaged 1,002 pounds of milk and 48.5 pounds of butterfat per cow, ranked 6th, and Pal-A-Bar farm, Barrington, whose herd of 33 pure bred Brown Swiss averaged 1,111 pounds of milk and 47.3 pounds of butterfat per cow, ranked 8th in fat production among the 1,793 herds on test in Illinois during the month.

The State average for September was 703 pounds of milk and 27.1 pounds of fat per cow. Both herds are members of the Cook County Dairy Herd Improvement Association No. 2.

Breaking The Sound Barrier; Designating Time Separation

While "riding" the U. S. Carrier Bennington, Editor Paddock had the opportunity to interview a jet pilot regarding the sound barrier and the reason for the air explosion that results when the jet gains a speed faster than sound.

The explanation will be of special interest to owners of homes in the O'Hare Airport area who have experienced the effects of "hot rod" jets. The pilot's explanation follows:

A plane traveling in the air creates sound waves, similar to the waves in a lake, caused by the dropping of a stone or stick in the water.

Sound waves in the air, if left alone, will spread themselves out and dissolve. It is the "sound breaking" jet which does not give those sound waves time to dissolve.

As the jet increases its speed, more and more, it is actually catching up with its own sound waves, which, piling up, forms what is known as the sound barrier. It is when a plane pierces that barrier that something happens.

If the plane has not been built with sufficient strength it will be blown apart, which has happened, but both the navy and army have planes capable of breaking the barrier. Possibly in order to discourage any of the fliers operating on the Bennington from attempting to establish high speed records navy regulations hold them at 600 miles an hour.

The armed forces of the U.S. and NATO have a simple way of designating changes in time, which is of special importance in communications between ships in different longitudes. Letters or simple words replace the longitude number.

The basis on which all time in this world is figured is from Greenwich, England, which the armed forces designate as "Z" or "Zebra" time. Traveling west the longitude names are Nan, Oboe, Peter, Queen and Roger. The U. S. Civilian term for "Roger" is "Eastern Standard Time."

Traveling eastward from Greenwich, the terms are Able, Baker, Charley, Dog, Easy, Fox, George, etc.

A ship sending a message from the areas of New York or Boston at noon would designate the time as "Roger 1200." As nearly all civilians are aware, the hours of every day in the armed forces are designated from one to twenty-four. (Thus 3 p.m. is termed "1500," etc).

ALL WORDS used for designating special points in the ocean where ships are expected to meet, etc., must have a distinct phonetic sound that is not easily misunderstood.

Severe wind disturbances, hurricanes, etc., are given names as storm develops, usually girl's names, such as "Helen," etc.

Under the same method various points in the ocean used by this task force participating in Exercise Mariner, were: Lion, Tiger, Leopard, Panther, Camel, Monkey, Rabbit, Turtle, and Chipmunk. The exercise ended at Squirrel.

On shipboard the word "affirmative" is used in place of "yes," and "negative" for no.

When a recipient wants to acknowledge an order or message that he clearly understands, he says, "Roger." If he wants to show that he will carry out an order, he says, "Willco," meaning will comply.

Carelessness And Foolishness Cause Most Deaths On Edens

Much publicity, mostly bad, has been given in recent months to traffic deaths on Edens expressway, a superhighway praised by experts as one of the most modern in the nation.

Arguments have been heard, contending that construction of the highway or its layout are to blame for many of the traffic fatalities.

BUT THURSDAY, William J. Mortimer, superintendent of the county highway department, showed figures and case records that tend to disprove this.

For every 200 million miles cars drove on the superhighway in 1952, there were 10 deaths. The nationwide average was 14 deaths. And case records showed human carelessness and bad driving habits to blame for most of the fatalities.

Here are a few of the cases taken from inquest records:

A CAR with a flat tire stopped in the middle of the highway. A man sat in the back seat while waiting for the owner to return from a gas station with the repaired tire. It was early morning and still dark. A semi-trailer truck loomed out of the darkness, crashing into the standing auto and knocking it about 100 feet. The man in the back seat was killed.

In another case, three boys—all about 14 yars old—were walking home after attending a Saturday afternoon movie. One boy used the sidewalk of an overpass to get across. The others ran down the enbankment to Edens expressway. One ran completely across, dodging traffic. The other boy ran almost across, stopped, turned around, and attempted to run back. He was struck and killed by a car. Witnesses said the driver had no chance to avoid hitting the boy.

ADULTS, TOO, were guilty of this pedestrian traffic violation. At least one case listed a 68 year old woman killed while trying to cross the busy highway on foot. Witnesses said she stepped right into the path of the car.

In a fourth case, a man stopped his car on the highway when a bird made a deposit on the windshield. A woman passenger got out to wipe it off. Another auto rammed their car from behind. The driver of the second car was killed. The others escaped serious injury.

In other cases a sailor driving north in a southbound lane rammed a truck head on. The sailor was killed.

Another such case was listed with one of the cars in a head-on collision going the wrong way in the same lane.

IN ONE CASE, a truck driver stopped on the highway behind several cars waiting for a tow truck to pull a car out of a ditch. He already had placed flares on the road behind his truck and was holding one flare when a motorist who kept coming rammed into the truck. The motorist was killed and his car demolished.

In five cases, three of them in daylight hours, the motorists for some unknown reason went off the road and onto the center parkway. In each of these cases, the motorists went straight down the parkway in the middle of the highway and struck center piers of overpasses. And in each case, there were no witnesses; the cars were total wrecks; and the drivers were thrown out and killed. In one of these cases, the wrecked auto bounced off the supporting pier, back onto the highway and landed on top of the driver.

Mortimer listed eight traffic deaths and 127 vehicle accidents on Edens last year, against 10 fatalities and 123 vehicle accidents in the first eight months of this year.

Be Considerate

Until a tragedy strikes in our own home we don't stop to think how inconsiderate radio and TV newscasters and newspapers can be when it comes to getting what they term "a scoop."

I know it is their job to report news, and the sooner they report it after it happens the bigger the feather in their cap. But do they stop to realize the report of someone killed in an accident might not have reached the family of the victim before they are broadcasting it over the air, or writing it up in their newspaper? How would they like to hear over a radio or TV broadcast, or read in the paper, a member of their family had been killed?

I have no objections to having news of an accident reported, but I do think out of consideration to the victim's family, newscasters could withhold names until they are sure the victim's family has been notified of the accident.

Homecoming

A letter sent to the student council at Arlington Heights high school from chief of police Carl H. Skoog reads in part as follows:

"I wish to extend my heartiest congratulations and sincere compliments on your successful homecoming festivities October 16.

"It was certainly a pleasure and privilege to serve the students and their efforts and conduct were indeed a credit to their fine school and the entire community."

Knowing full well what editors think of most publicity chairmen; and knowing full well how a publicity chairman's perverted sense of news values, coupled with tears, threats and "soft-soap" give editors sleepless nights and gray hairs, may I take this opportunity to thank the staff of the Arlington Heights Herald for their untiring patience and courtesies to the Arlington Heights Community Chest prior to and during our recent fund drive.

Trucks On 83

The recent article about a soft drink truck strewing pop bottles and cases over curb, parkway, and sidewalk at Main and Lincoln no doubt had a humorous aspect to many readers.

However, to those of us who live on Route 83 in the village, it is just another hazard with which we have to contend daily.

Fortunately none of our children were passing on the way to or from school, nor playing in the immediate area. The next time we may not be so lucky.

THE NUMBER of trucks on Route 83 seems to be increasing daily in proportion to their disregard for the posted speed limits, and the constant pounding of the pavement has loosened sections of concrete which set up enough vibration to rattle the dishes in the cupboards.

On Sundays there is a respite from the monsters, due, we are told, to some Wisconsin law prohibiting trucks on the highways over the week end. Comparative quiet reigns until bedtime when the parade of the diesels again begins and we are lulled to sleep by the roar of their exhausts as they thunder by, bumper to bumper.

The long awaited re-routing of Route 83 will be a boon to the community, when, as, and if it becomes a fact. In the meantime, it seems that a stricter enforcement of the speed laws would be a step in the right direction.

Residential Street

This is the voice of a neighbor on Main st., who has first hand knowledge of the ear-splitting bangs, knocks, bumps and rattles of the trucks racing along 83; Main st., that is.

In fact this menace is heightened right now because of a hole at Thayer and Main. I was scared silly when after a huge truck banged over this dip, a strange frightening noise rose on the air, which was finally identified as a flat tire.

This scared me because I just got through reading about a huge tire that flew off a truck and crashed through the roof of a house narrowly missing a sleeping child.

Why wait until the horse leaves the barn before closing the door?

Let's do what needs to be done to set things in motion to end this growing menace.

If we don't do it now, sooner or later someone will be a victim, not only of a flying tire or flying soft drink bottles, or even an exploding gasoline truck, but trying to buck traffic getting out of our garages and worrying about the children going into the street is no small matter.

Because, after all, we can't close our eyes to the fact that Main st. is now a residential street and needs to be treated as such!

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

During our stay in Indianapolis, I enjoyed a wonderful European trip! The tour took me through Italy, Germany, France, Austria, Switzerland and back home again in just three evenings. Of course, the narrator of this tour abroad was my aunt who spent six weeks in Europe, returning about a month ago. While there, she faithfully kept a daily diary of interesting and unusual sights, impressions of places and people, and personal observations of the habits and customs of the Europeans. As she told of her travels, she often read from this diary—adding flavor and color, and a sort of third dimension to her story.

Aunt Dot and her friends flew from New York to Gander, then to Shannon, Ireland and on to Frankfurt, and finally Zurich—the end of the flight. She wrote of the trip from Frankfurt to Zurich, ". . . ride a little bumpy, but sun out and visability good . . . could see fields looking like patch work quilt with hedges between like featherstitching. Many villages of red tile-roofed house . . ."

AS THEY LEFT THE PLANE in Zurich, they saw many people standing around waiting for passengers, with bouquets of fresh garden flowers for their arriving friends. The sight of Zurich's narrow streets and flower boxes of bright red geraniums give them the feeling of at last really being in Europe.

From Zurich Aunt Dot went to Milan, one of the prettier and more modern cities of Italy, and then to Venice by bus. ". . . Think of it, gondola to our hotel up the Grand Canal . . . refreshed by dinner on the terrace we went to St. Mark's Square—amazing! Music, shops, people, people . . ."

A ride through a maze of canals the next day took them past the palaces of Byron and Mussolini and passing them were other gondolas and motor boats filled with wares, coal, logs, food, etc. This unique city of waterways has beautiful churches, open markets and famous paintings by such masters as Titian and Tintoretto. However, the city seeming to possess most of the classic Italian paintings was Florence, the next city to be visited.

Of Pitti Palace in Florence, Aunt Dot wrote, ". . . gorgeous, in wonderful state of preservation, crystal chandeliers and everything wood carved and gold covered . . . such luxury . . . such extravagance . . . not surprising a political change!"

DURING HER RIDE from Florence to Rome, she wrote, ". . . hilly but most fertile agricultural area . . . grapes for miles trimmed and trained almost like small trees . . . gray, silver, olive trees often alternated with grape 'trees' . . . some tobacco . . . hay being stacked up in small dome-like shapes . . . ploughing with oxen . . . women and children working in the fields—castles and castle-like buildings." And of her stay in Rome, ". . . city of marvels of the old and glorious Romans and beginnings of Christian religion . . . a mixture of ancient and new . . . domes of churches everywhere . . . fountains and squares . . . massive and impressive buildings . . . Vatican City . . . side walk cafes . . . all types of autos from tiny foreign ones to big Cadillacs . . . bare-legged, sandal-shoed Italian women and chattering people of almost any nationality . . ." It would be impossible for me to tell you about all the other Italian towns Aunt D. visited, but among them were Naples, Genoa, Pompeii and Capri.

After this strenuous and rapid tour of Italy, all were glad to relax for a few days in Nice. One afternoon, while standing on the board walk overlooking the turquoise and azure blue Mediterranean, a group of young boys and their leader arrived at the beach dressed in little shorts and T shirts and carrying bathing suits. At a signal from their leader, the group sat down on the sand and put on their suits and red bathing caps. The swimming period lasted about fifteen minutes. As soon as the boys were again dressed, their leader cut off a hunk of bread for each one from a huge, dark brown loaf, and gave each a chocolate bar. After this unusual repast, the group went on its way.

PARIS WAS JUST as Aunt D. expected it to be, a city of fabulous shops, boulevards and parks, ancient museums and churches, open markets and flower carts, palaces and gardens and over-crowded, dirty, slum areas and of course, sparkling wine, bright lights and gay entertainment. Of her greatest thrills here, she considered two of them to be her first sight of the "Winged Victory" in the Louvre, and the Sacre Coer cathedral. This church, though not so well known, Aunt D. thought one of the most beautiful, ". . . as we walked toward this shining white cathedral, at times it was out of sight, even though it is on the highest spot in Paris . . . up almost three hundred steps and into the church . . . such a sight! . . . front of church and altar lighted for Benediction service . . . altar picture of Christ and angel in gold, shining in the light of many, many candles . . . organ music and singing seemed to be all around us . . . I'll never forget it!"

Aunt Dot told of many other cities and villages in France and of her stay in Munich, Innsbruck and Saltzburg—the home of the annual Arts Festival and the finest carved wood, mechanical figures Europe has to offer.

* * *

IN BEAUTIFUL SWITZERLAND, how much she enjoyed the trip up the Jungfrau mountain and her stay at the chalet from whose windows one could see nothing but ice, snow and mountain tops. And, of course, the incomparable Materhorn whose peak arises golden in the sunrise and ice-blue in the moonlight.

Like most tourists, Aunt Dot was glad to get home, but also like most tourists, she is already planning a return trip!

My love,

Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

An Arlington Heights businessman asked us the other day why there were so many new churches springing up. This seems to be true of other towns too.

It isn't only new churches springing, old ones are springing sideways. There is hardly a church alive that doesn't have a little building fund hanging over it. Well, we thought and thought and then gave our considered and significant opinion.

Before the last war, World War II, not the police action in Korea, there was a sort of Godlessness abroad in the world. Then came the big war and there was scarcely a family that was untouched in a very personal manner. There wasn't a single thing the individual could do to keep the boys safe and sound at home. It was a situation that mothers, fathers, wives, sweethearts, and sisters could not control. There was nothing to do but put things in the hands of God and pray.

All churches had increased membership and started bursting their seams. Man, it seems, has at last found out that there is more to this life than daily bread and has found out too that he needs a little help from higher up to keep his life on an even keel. And, high time he did too.

We just can't get over the wonderful way that Halloween is handled in this area. When we get to reminiscing about what little stinkers we were back in our youth, we blush and only discuss it with our contemporaries after the small fry are safe in bed. Education is a wonderful thing and the children who grow up around here have been educated to say "Tricks or Treats" but no one has explained the trick part of the deal to them. They seem to get their fun out of dressing up, being out on the streets too late, and seeing how many candy bars will be forthcoming.

We have never had our windows soaped, our doorbell rung for nothing, and have never removed our garbage can from its accustomed spot. To the parents and the good givers of the treats go all the credit. Our small fry even returned early because they said they had all the stuff they could possibly eat for a month. They were tired, happy, and had chocolate all around their smiling mouths.

We admit there is juvenile delinquency in the world but as long as whole towns will put themselves out to see that children have a good time on their night on the town, we aren't going to worry about combatting it right here. It's being combatted.

Says Home Price Boom Leveling Off, Take It Easy

The home owner who buys a house on today's market with a nominal equity, may very well discover tomorrow that he actually owes more for the building than the purchase price of a comparable structure.

This was declared by Roy Wenzlick, one of the nation's foremost housing authorities, in an address Thursday night before the Illinois state chamber of commerce's 35th annual meeting, which got under way in Chicago Thursday. The statement was included in a 10 year forecast in the fields of housing, construction and real estate.

"THE PROSPECTIVE home owner also will find," he said, "that he can buy an existing building for considerably less than the cost of constructing a new one. So it is hard to see how, under these conditions, building volume can continue at its present rate, and it seems to me that, even though adequate amounts of mortgage moneys are available, new building is apt to shrink in the period ahead."

One of the elements he noted in explaining the predicted recession in housing is that the marriage rate has dropped to its lowest point in the past 13 years and, in all probability, will drop even further during the next three or four years.

ANOTHER FACTOR affecting the real estate owner today—especially the holder of rental units is that during the past 11 years a very minimum of maintenance has been done, as most owners tried to maximize their new returns in a period when their gross was limited due to rent control. For the most part this was accomplished by deferring practically all types of maintenance wherever possible.

Also he noted that, as rents go higher, tenants will be using space with greater economy, causing, of course, the development of vacancies and bringing about many changes in current management policies. In the competition which he predicted will develop, "owners are going to make every possible effort to hold existing tenants and to attract others by putting their buildings in better repair.

"The real estate owner whose principal ownership lies in an individual home will also probably find himself affected. In the first place, he has experienced a market since 1936 where the value of his home has almost always constantly increased. During this period the selling price of a typical residence has more than tripled, and the person with the slimmest equity in 1936 now has a very conservative investment, even though no payments may have been made on the principal. This was a period during which 85%, 90%, and 100% loans could be made with great safety, but the indications are that throughout the United States existing housing will now shrink in value.

"If we have a short readjustment period, followed by a resumption of inflation, the ownership of good real estate would be better than the ownership of bonds or mortgages, as the real estate would tend to increase with the inflation, while bonds and mortgages would still command only the same number of dollars, each with a lower purchasing power. Just so soon as it would become apparent that a strong inflationary trend had again set in, it would seem reasonable to increase the mortgage indebtedness on these good properties and to use the additional capital secured in this way to purchase equities in other good properties at that time."

Wenzlick, since 1928, has devoted his entire time to real estate research. His work was featured in an issue of Business Week earlier this year and he is the author of the book, "The Coming Boom in Real Estate," a best seller of the late 1930's which also was printed in Reader's Digest.

In one year the family laundry requires the lady of the house to walk three miles carrying a load of 3,000 pounds of wet wash, tests made by the gas appliance manufacturers association disclose. Much of this labor can be eliminated by installation of a modern laundry, including a gas clothes dryer, in unused space in the basement or on the back porch.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

While the war was going on in Korea, my wife and I often listened sympathetically to the complaints of mothers, fathers and sweethearts whose loved ones were in Korea. We thought we understood how they felt; but we didn't feel their uneasiness, or their fears and worries until our own son had to go. Only then did we experience the feelings they were experiencing, and only then was our understanding complete.

Undoubtedly hundreds of thousands of mothers and fathers who have seen their boys go to war in the last two years, have gone through the same personal metamorphosis as we. To my wife and me it brought home with greater force than anything ever had before that no one, absolutely no one, can understand the problems which cause others worry, fear or loneliness, unless he has gone through the crucible of a similar experience. If I were God and wished to teach human beings to love one another, I would go about it in much the same way that He has often done, by bringing them sorrow, pain, misfortune, loneliness and fear.

UNFORTUNATELY, however, such experiences often only cause us to think no one suffers as much as we do, is more abused or misunderstood than you and me as individuals; and where we should have learned understanding, sympathy and love ,we often simply pity ourselves the more, and feel bitter toward others.

By suffering, we should learn patience; mistakes should teach us how hard they sometimes are to correct; when we are abused, we should learn how hard it is to bear; and by transferring our feelings to others, we should learn to be considerate, kind unselfish and helpful. Experience, a hard taskmaster, is a wise teacher; but if we apply the things we learn through experience in the wrong manner; if we grow bitter, hateful and selfish, we have been poor scholars. If we learn to understand and feel for others, we will know how desperately everyone needs love, sympathy and help. We will know because we ourselves have been tempered in the crucible of experience; and we shall help.

JOE'S TRADING POST

SENSATIONAL - COLOSSAL

Even such words cannot describe this magnitude of values as Joe has acquired this week. Advertising deadline does not permit me to send in details and prices of all merchandise that will be offered for sale. Here is a partial list of goods. Boys' sweaters, hats, shirts, and jackets. Ladies' and girls rayon panties, girdles, bras, slacks, nylon slips and nightgowns, misc. children's clothing, ladies nylon and all wool sweaters at about 1/3 regular cost, pajamas, robes, ladies and young girls' dresses, lace curtains, vinyl plastic kitchen and bathroom curtains, men's work rubbers, arctics, knee high rubber boots, underwear, gloves, socks and hundreds and hundreds of clothing items. All this merchandise will be sold for less than wholesale price. The above is a partial list of merchandise bought by me November 2. The auction will continue through November 4 and if successful I will acquire a lot of building material such as Celotex, storm windows, doors and screens, and kitchen cabinets. Don't forget folks, cold weather is just around the corner. I have some good oil and coal stoves from $7 and up. Kitchen storage cabinets $11.50 and $14.50 ea. Amateur radio sending and receiving sets very reasonable. Electric therapy machine $35. Plumbing and electrical supplies, and just everything under the sun. Special sales force will be on hand this Saturday and Sunday to handle the crowd.

Please come early Sat. or Sun. We can give you better service if you do.

IN MEMORIAM

A tribute of love in memory of John Wolf who passed away November 4, 1952.
One year has passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away;
God took him home, it was his will,
But in our hearts he liveth still.
Wife and Children. (*

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of beloved Father and grandfather, Mr. Arthur Boesche, who passed away three years ago, Nov. 5, 1950.

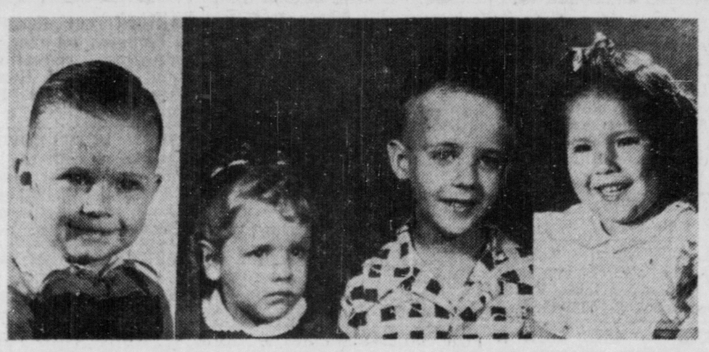

God knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew you never could get well
In this world again.

He saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered
Peace be thine.

A loving father so true and kind.
No friend on earth like you we find,
For all of us you did your best.
May God grant you eternal rest.

Loving Children and Grandchildren.

Presenting The Younger Generation

Typical Boy

Baseball and football are the two major interests of the little boy pictured first. Steven Campeau is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Campeau of 18 W. Chicago ave., Palatine.

This youngster is 3 ½ years old, has light brown hair and blue eyes. He loves to be outdoors and play with other boys. Steven has a pet rabbit that he enjoys caring for.

And he has a little brother, Jimmy, who is 6 months old. Mrs. Anna Porep of Palatine is the children's grandmother.

Sister and Brother

Judy and Ricky Mader, pictured next, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mader of 1440 E. Kensington, Arlington Heights.

Four-year-old Judy has light brown hair, while Ricky, who is 6, has blond hair. Both have green eyes.

The children love their baby sister Susan, who is 14 months old. Judy likes to play with her dolls and doll buggy, and she likes to help her Mommy with household tasks.

Ricky is an outdoor boy, and enjoys playing cowboy and playing on the swing set in their back yard. He is in first grade at the North school.

Both Judy and Ricky have fun taking care of their pet bantam chickens and their pet dog, Mugs.

Grandparents of the children are Mrs. Bernice Owen and Vincent Kuna, both of Chicago.

Smiling Lass

The cheerful smile on the little miss pictured last belongs to Rosemary Wickenkamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wickenkamp of 315 N. State rd., Arlington Heights.

Rosemary was 3 ½ years old when this picture was taken, and has brown hair and brown eyes. We are sorry that we were unable to contact Rosemary's parents for further information.

Two Hurt in Snake Dance at Libertyville

The injury of two Libertyville-Fremont high school students in the snake dance has caused school officials to consider revisions and improvements in next year's version of the Homecoming demonstration.

Injured were Jervis Newton and Ann Bergfald, both 14 years old. Newton received head injuries and Miss Bergfald sustained a broken collar bone.

High school superintendent Allen Fort said that Miss Bergfald received her injuries during a "whip" activity at the football field. Newton was knocked unconscious during the snake dance through the village. Both were treated at Condell hospital.

Crystal Lake Lions to Sell Brooms for Organ

The sale of 2000 brooms in Crystal Lake in a house-to-house drive is the goal of the Lions club. These brooms are made by persons at the Lighthouse for the Blind. In addition to helping the blind, the profits will go into a fund the club is building to purchase an electric organ for the high school fieldhouse.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

The taxpayers' federation of Illinois can find little ground for optimism from analysis of the report of the Illinois department of finance on the state of the state's finances.

Analysis of the state's report released October 16 indicates that actual spending from the general fund for the period from July 1, 1951 through June 30, 1953 again exceeded income, this time by about 28 million dollars.

State spending is going still higher, while revised income estimates contained in the state's report are at almost the same level as for the past biennium.

AID TO COMMON schools is going to cost the state close to 16 million dollars more for the current biennium ending June 30, 1955, than for the past biennium that ended June 30 this year.

The University of Illinois is going to spend 7 or 8 million more this biennium than last.

There's a 12.5 million dollar increase for building costs from the General Fund to pay for the new State office building.

The appropriation for military purposes is 2 million dollars higher, and is almost certainly going to have to be supplemented by a deficiency appropriation because of reactivation of national guard units now in Federal service.

There is going to be a multi-million dollar deficiency in the appropriation for public assistance purposes unless public aid costs run lower during the current biennium than the last—whereas the reverse is more likely to happen in fact.

THERE'S GOING to be a dificiency in the appropriation for the department of public welfare unless costs for the balance of the biennium are cut below present levels.

While spending can and certainly will be held below appropriations for many purposes, total general fund spending for the current two-year period is going to run substantially higher than for the last two years—while income is estimated to remain the same. This means that the State is not only going to spend 28 million dollars more than income during the present biennium but millions more than that.

If the state spends all the money appropriated from the general fund, there will be only about 8 million dollars left June 30, 1955, according to the state's financial report based on revised income estimates. Then either income will have to be increased or appropriations will have to be cut 68 million dollars to balance the next budget.

Laugh-Provokers Hit New High in Ice Follies

Ice Follies of 1954, the Shipstads and Johnson's eighteenth annual all-new edition opening a limited engagement Thursday night, Oct. 22, at the Chicago Arena, hits a new high for comedy with four outstanding combinations of funmakers, in addition to a galaxy of solo laugh-provokers.

Topping the list is Frick & Co. with the king of ice comedians at his best in a new act, called "Putting on the Ritz." Always greatest when resorting to his old trick of burlesquing, Frick this year is reducing the sublime to the ridiculous with music to match the mood and able aids helping him to make his act the most terrific comedy presentation the ice show world has yet seen.

For agility it would be hard to beat The Scarecrows, three amazing young men from Merrie Old England and easily the best ice-crobats today. In the new edition of the Ice Follies, they are performing as sailors, three gobs in the British "Nyvy" doing a slapstick routine that is fast as a jet and as funny as a barrel of monkeys.

High on the show's laugh list is an intrepid kitten, animated by the all-Chicago comedy duo of Ole Ericsen and Dick Mershon, and in this bright spot called "Kitten Antiks" will be seen the famous Ice Follies clowns, this time as hoboes.

The Sad Sacks, featuring the veteran comedian, Les Hamilton, along with Terry Hall, Pat Shanahan and Kurt Trostorff, are presented in a hilarious burlesque on GI life.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Would it be all right for the sister of a bride-elect to give a party for her, or would that imply that gifts are expected?

A. This is all right if it is emphasized that the party is not to be a shower. Or, give the party in the evening and invite men, too.

Q. When a man has taken a girl out to a movie and refreshments later on, should she thank him at the end of the evening?

A. She should not thank him, but she should tell him how much she has enjoyed the evening.

Q. When a man is dining with a woman in a restaurant, and another man stops at their table to chat for a minute, what should the woman's escort do?

A. He should rise and remain standing until the other man leaves.

Q. Is it proper to mail the wedding announcements at the same time as the invitations?

A. No The wedding invitations are mailed out two or three weeks prior to the ceremony, while the announcements are not mailed until immediately after the cere-Some member of the bride's family can take care of this.

Q. Should one offer a tip to the conductor on a train, for any special service rendered?

A. No; the train conductor is never tipped.

Q. When passing a pitcher, or any other receptacle with a handle, is it required that the handle always be toward the person receiving it?

A. Yes, the handle should always be presented.

Q. Is an unmarried woman presented to a married one when making an introduction?

A. Yes, unless the single woman is considerably older than the married one. A bride of twenty years should be presented to a woman of fifty, regardless of whether the latter is married or single.

Q. Is it good form to use ruled paper for social correspondence?

A. No; use plain, white, unruled paper of good quality.

Q. I've heard that, when using a match, a man should always light his own cigarette before those of his companions, because of the initial sulphur taste. Is this correct?

A. No; the well-bred man will always light his companions' cigarettes first. If he wishes to avoid the sulphur taste, he can always pause just a second after striking the match.

Q. What should a girl say when being introduced to a young man?

A. "How do you do" is sufficient.

Q. Even if a wedding is to be a very small, informal one, would it be all right for the bride to wear a white bridal veil?

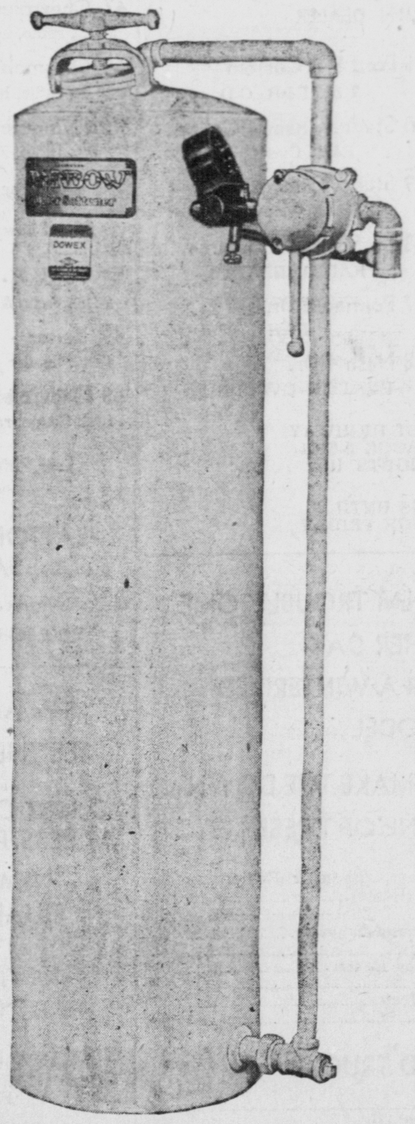

A. Yes, provided it is not her second marriage.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

To Extend Toggle Switch

IF the toggle switch on a power tool is difficult to reach, American Builder, "bible" of the building industry, has a solution. Take a short section of stiff tubing and slip it tightly over the toggle switch handle. This lengthens the handle and brings it within reach. Use either plastic or stiff rubber tubing
